2015 USC SPRING FOOTBALL OUTLOOK

Expectations are high for the 2015 USC football team.

Many media outlets predict the Trojans will finish among the nation's top teams this season and could land in a College Football Playoff game.

Those pundits likely are basing that on the fact USC returns 16 starters—including one of the nation's top quarterbacks along with experienced, dynamic young talent on both sides of the ball—from a team that went 9-4 in 2014 (including wins at No. 10 Arizona and No. 13 Stanford) and won the Holiday Bowl despite never suiting up more than 57 recruited scholarship players for a game because of lingering NCAA scholarship limitations and injuries.

The prognosticators also see that USC's depth should be dramatically improved in 2015, as the sanctions-free Trojans welcome a 24-member recruiting class that was ranked No. 1 nationally by many observers (5 of those newcomers enrolled at Troy this January and will participate in spring practice). That should give USC a more complete roster, with at least 76 scholarship players, and perhaps help the Trojans finish games better this year (2 of USC's losses in 2014 came on the opponents' final play of the contest).

Optimism also is high among USC's coaches and players. However, it is tempered with a sense of reality.

"We realize what people's expectations are for the program and we're not going to shy away from them, we're going to embrace them," said second-year USC head coach Steve Sarkisian, who last season posted the most victories by a first-year Trojan coach since 1976. "That's the reason all of us came to USC, to be the best and to uphold the standards that have been set here.

"With that said, now is the time for us to go to work. We need to build a team-first culture. We need to improve our physicality and develop a bully mentality. And we need to take advantage of our speed and athleticism.

"We have signed tremendous recruiting classes here that have added depth to our roster. We expect to be a better team in the fourth quarter this year and finish games stronger."

Last year, USC outscored opponents by nearly double (284-149) in the first half, including 167-53 in the first quarter, and did not let any foe put up points on an opening drive. But the Trojans faded in the second half, holding just a 182-178 scoring edge, and Troy was outscored in the final quarter, 86-72.

Some 80 squadmen return from last year's USC team that tied for second in the Pac-12 South Division at 6-3 and finished 20th in the AP poll. Of those, 53 saw action in 2014. Twenty-eight were on the season-ending 2 deep and 34 have started at least once in their career. But the Trojans relied on youth last season as 11 true freshmen played significant roles, including 8 who combined for 58 starts (4 of them won Freshman All-American first team notice).

USC's 8 returning offensive starters are Heisman Trophy and All-American candidate quarterback Cody Kessler, who had the most efficient passing season in USC history (69.7% completions, 39 TDs, 5 interceptions) while setting or tying 6 school season records; wide receiver JuJu Smith, a 2014 Freshman All-American first teamer who had 54 receptions with 5 TDs and now could be in line for Biletnikoff Award and All-American consideration; the entire offensive line (2014 All-Pac-12 first team center Max Tuerk, now a candidate for the Rimington Award and All-American, 2014 Freshman All-American first teamers Toa Lobendahn at guard-tackle and Viane Talamaivao at guard, plus tackles Chad Wheeler and Zach Banner); and co-starting fullbacks Soma Vainuku and Jahleel Pinner. Other offensive players back with starting experience are wide receivers Darreus Rogers (43 career catches), Steven Mitchell and Ajene Harris, tight end Bryce Dixon (4 TDs among his 14 receptions last year), guard Damien Mama and guard-center Khaliel Rodgers. These players helped the USC offense rank in the national Top 25 in scoring, passing, passing efficiency and third down conversions last fall.

The 7 Trojan starters returning on a defense that was in the nation's Top 20 in turnover margin, red zone defense and third down conversion defense are safety-outside linebacker Su'a Cravens, a candidate for the Bednarik and Nagurski Awards and All-American after being a 2014 Sophomore All-American first team pick when he had 68 tackles and led the Trojans in tackles for loss (17) and interceptions (3); electric Freshman All-American first team cornerback-wide receiver-returner Adoree' Jackson, USC's first 3-way player since 1997 (he had 49 tackles, 3 receiving touchdowns and 2 kickoff return TDs last year) who could be up for major national awards and All-American this year (he was the 2014 Pac-12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year); inside linebacker Anthony Sarao (74 tackles last season); nose tackle Antwaun Woods and tackle-end Delvon Simmons (91 tackles between them in 2014); cornerback Kevon Seymour (a team-high 13 deflections last fall with his 49 tackles); and co-starting safeties Leon McQuay III and John Plattenburg. Other defenders back with career starts are outside linebackers Scott Felix and Jabari Ruffin, inside linebacker Michael Hutchings, tackle-end Claude Pelon and cornerback Chris Hawkins.

Punter Kris Albarado and snapper Zach Smith are back for their third seasons in those roles, and holder Conner Sullivan and kickoff man Alex Wood also return. Jackson and Smith handled most of the kickoff return duties in 2014, with Jackson running a pair back for scores.

"I've said it before, our future is ridiculously bright," said Sarkisian, who is just the third Trojan head coach to win his debut against Notre Dame. "We are excited for the upcoming season, but it is important that we understand the work and the team-first attitude that is required to be successful. Because someone says we'll be good doesn't mean it just happens, we need to work hard every day and develop as a team."

Despite all the returnees on USC's 2015 roster, Troy will have to fill some major holes, including those left by 4 players who departed after their junior seasons to enter the NFL draft. They are: Leonard Williams, USC's first 2-time All-American defensive end since 1959-60 (he had 80 tackles with 7 sacks last fall) and a likely high NFL first round pick; 2014 All-American wide receiver-returner Nelson Agholor, who had 174 receptions with 20 TD grabs in his career (104 with 12 in 2014) and also scored a school-record 4 times on punt returns as a Trojan (2 last season); tailback Javorius Allen, who rushed for 1,489 yards in 2014 (the most by a Trojan since 2005) with 11 TDs and in his career had 2,306 rushing yards and 63 receptions; and wide receiver

George Farmer (25 catches in 2014). Also gone are 4-year starting inside linebacker Hayes Pullard (his 377 career tackles are sixth most in USC history), who was the first Trojan to lead the team in tackles for 3 seasons since 1977-79, 3-year starting tight end Randall Telfer (65 career catches with 12 TDs), outside linebacker J.R. Tavai (130 career stops), safety Gerald Bowman, cornerback-safety Josh Shaw and offensive tackle-guard Aundrey Walker, as well as 4-year placekicker Andre Heidari, who had 49 career field goals (4 were at least 50 yards) and set Pac-12 career records for PATs (187) and PAT attempts (193).

There's only 1 new face on USC's fulltime coaching staff this season: offensive line coach Bob Connelly, who has spent 20 years guiding the lines at such schools as Alabama, Arizona State, Oklahoma State, UCLA, Washington State and UTEP.

USC's 2015 football schedule, with 7 home games in the Coliseum (USC has won 75% of its games there, including capturing 5-of-6 last year), features 9 opponents who played in bowl games last season. The Trojans open with 3 consecutive home games, first against Sun Belt members Arkansas State on Sept. 5 of Labor Day weekend (it's the first meeting between the schools) and then Idaho on Sept. 12 before hosting Stanford on Sept. 19 in the Pac-12's initial conference game of 2015. USC first goes on the road for a Sept. 26 matchup at Arizona State. Following a bye, Troy returns home for a Thursday night game on Oct. 8 against Washington, the team that Sarkisian previously guided for 5 seasons (it will be just the third non-Thanksgiving or non-bowl Thursday game USC has played in the Coliseum). Next up is USC's traditional intersectional battle against Notre Dame, this time in South Bend on Oct. 17. USC hosts Utah on Oct. 24 as part of Trojan Family Weekend before embarking on its annual Bay Area visit when it plays at California on Oct. 31 (it will be USC's 13th Halloween game). Following that is Homecoming/Reunion Weekend, featuring the Nov. 7 home game against reigning Pac-12 South Division champion Arizona. The Trojans next have a 2-game road trip, first at Colorado for a Friday the 13th night encounter on Nov. 13 and then at defending Pac-12 champ Oregon on Nov. 21. USC concludes its 2015 regular season by hosting crosstown foe UCLA in a Thanksgiving weekend clash on Nov. 28. The Trojans do not play Oregon State or Washington State in the 2015 regular season.

OFFENSE

Eight starters return on offense from 2014: quarterback Cody Kessler, wide receiver JuJu Smith, center Max Tuerk, guard-tackle Toa Lobendahn, guard Viane Talamaivao and tackles Chad Wheeler and Zach Banner, plus co-starting fullbacks Soma Vainuku and Jahleel Pinner. Others back with starting experience are wide receivers Darreus Rogers, Steven Mitchell and Ajene Harris, tight end Bryce Dixon, guard Damien Mama and guard-center Khaliel Rodgers.

Although USC's leading passer is back from last year, the Trojans must replace their top ground gainer (however, Troy's next 6 rushers return) and their reception leader (in fact, 3 of their top 4 pass catchers are gone). USC averaged nearly 460 total yards (almost 300 through the air) and 36 points last fall. Troy's total and passing yardage averages were its most since 2005. The Trojans set school records for most completions (318) and highest completion rate (69.1%) in a season, while their 5 interceptions were the fewest since 1962. In its 2014 opener against Fresno State, USC had 701 total yards (its most since 2005) on a then-Pac-12 record 105 plays. Twice, USC threw for at least 6 TDs in a game last year. USC ranked in the national Top 25 in scoring offense (35.8), passing offense (296.6), passing efficiency (165.4) and third down conversions (.466) last fall. However, despite having a 1,000-yard runner in 2014 and hitting the 200-yard team rushing mark in 6 games (including 5 times in a row), Troy's rushing average (160.9) was almost 12 yards lower than the previous season. And USC allowed 32 sacks, its second most since 2001.

"We're not going to stray very far from our offensive approach of a year ago," said Sarkisian, who will continue to call the plays in USC's up-tempo, no-huddle offense with help from offensive coordinator Clay Helton. "We want to continue to be balanced. We love to run the ball to set up the pass, but we know we have a very effective receiving corps, too. And we want to do all this in an up-tempo manner. This spring, we need to develop our physicality and emphasize our speed and athleticism while building an offensive identity and playing to our strengths."

QUARTERBACKS

In senior Cody Kessler (315-of-452, 69.7%, 3,826 yds, 39 TD, 5 int in 2014, plus 2 rush TD and 33.0 avg on 7 P), USC has the nation's most accomplished returning quarterback of 2015. The 2-year starter enters this year as a leading candidate for the Heisman Trophy and All-American honors. In 2014 as a finalist for the Manning and Unita Golden Arm Awards, he put together USC's most efficient passing season ever, completing 69.7% of his passes for 39 touchdowns and just 5 interceptions. No quarterback in the nation last fall threw as many passes as Kessler and had only 5 interceptions, and only 1 besides Kessler (Oregon's Heisman winner Marcus Mariota) threw at least 35 TDs with just 5 or fewer interceptions. Last season, Kessler—the Holiday Bowl Offensive MVP—was third nationally in completion percentage, fourth in both passing efficiency (167.1) and passing TDs, eighth in completions (24.3), 12th in passing yards (294.3) and 24th in total offense (282.6). He set or tied school season records for completions (315), completion percentage, passing efficiency, interception rate (1.11), TD passes and 300-yard passing games (7). His 7 scoring throws against Colorado set a USC game record and his 6 TDs versus Notre Dame was an Irish opponent record. Kessler enters 2015 in the Top 6 of several USC career lists: fourth in TD passes (59) and sixth in completions (553), passing yardage (6,803) and total offense (6,527 yards). His current career completion percentage of 67.9% and interception rate of 1.47 are better than 2004 Heisman Trophy winner Matt Leinart's USC records (64.8% and 1.85%).

Several young returning players will compete to back up Kessler: sophomore Max Browne (3-of-7, 42.9%, 30 yds in 2014), who saw limited action in 6 games last year (twice playing the entire fourth quarter), and left-handed redshirt freshman Jalen Greene.

Then there are 5 untested walk-ons in junior Conner Sullivan, who was the holder on all placekicks in 2014 (he also has participated on USC's baseball and track teams), and redshirt freshmen Michael Bowman, Larry Tuileta (he also plays volleyball at USC).

A pair of prep All-Americans will join the quarterback competition as freshmen: Ricky Town (St. Bonaventure High in Ventura, Calif.), who will participate in spring practice after graduating high school a semester early and enrolling at USC this spring, and Sam Darnold (San Clemente High in San Clemente, Calif.), who arrives in the fall. As prep seniors, Town threw for 2,639 yards and 29 TDs (just 3 picks) on 66.2% passing and Darnold had 2,985 yards with 39 TDs and 8 interceptions on 67.8% completions.

"It is always an advantage to have a senior quarterback leading your team," said Sarkisian. "Nobody ever has had the kind of season Cody had last year and went as unnoticed as he did, but that serves as great motivation for him this season. He has a chip on his shoulder and I expect him to have another outstanding season. He has good vision and smarts, delivers a very accurate ball, is mobile, is able to make quick decisions and does a great job of leading our offense. Behind him, we have quality depth. There will be a tremendous battle for the backup role and the future starting job."

RUNNING BACKS

USC's 2015 running attack will miss 2014 All-Pac-12 first team tailback Javorius Allen, who declared for the NFL draft after his junior season. He finished his Trojan career with 2,306 rushing yards (with 25 TDs), including 13 100-yard performances (all within the past 19 games). Last year, he ran for 1,489 yards with 11 scores and added 41 catches for another 458 yards, ending up 12th nationally in all-purpose running (149.8, tops in the Pac-12) and 23rd in rushing yards (114.5). He had the most season rushing yards by a Trojan since 2005, the most 100-yard games (9) at USC since 1989, the most carries (276) by a Trojan since 1984 and the most consecutive 100-yard outings (6) at USC since 1981.

Only 2 scholarship tailbacks return to USC in 2015: junior Justin Davis (129 tcb, 595 yds, 4.6 avg, 4 TD in 2014, plus 13 rec, 92 yds, 7.1 avg, 2 TD) and senior Tre Madden. Davis was Allen's backup in 2014 and showed flashes of his talent (he rushed for 80-plus yards in 3 games last year), as he also did as a freshman in 2013 when he ran for 361 yards and 6 scores in USC's first 7 games before getting hurt. Madden missed all of last fall with a toe injury (the second season that he was sidelined, as a knee injury felled him in 2012). But, like Davis, Madden also grabbed headlines in 2013 (he started the first 6 games that season) as he ran for 703 yards despite being slowed the second half of that campaign with a hamstring injury. Madden started off 2013 with 3 consecutive 100-yard games, a first at USC since 1981, and his 4 receiving TDs that season were the most by a Trojan tailback since 2004.

The other returning tailbacks on the USC roster are walk-ons James Toland IV (29 tcb, 102 yds, 3.5 avg in 2014, plus 1 tac), who was impressive in his brief late-game appearances, and redshirt freshman Stefan Smith.

Joining the tailback unit this fall as freshmen will be prep All-Americans Ronald Jones II (McKinney North High in McKinney, Tex.), who had 2,000 yards and 28 rushing TDs as a senior, and Dominic Davis (Bishop Alemany High in Mission Hills, Calif.), a speedster (he was fourth in the California state 100-meter dash in 2014) who might also be used as a slot receiver, along with Aca'Cedric Ware (Cedar Hill High in Cedar Hill, Tex.), who led his team to a pair of Texas state championships (he ran for nearly 2,500 yards with 34 TDs in 2014).

"Justin and Tre give us a two-headed monster at tailback," said Sarkisian. "Both are quality players who fit well in our system. We'll be somewhat limited in the spring at this position, but help arrives in the fall with some explosive freshmen who give us depth and make this a position of strength."

Seniors Soma Vainuku (7 tcb, 40 yds, 5.7 avg, 1 TD in 2014, plus 6 tac) and Jahleel Pinner (2 tcb, 6 yds, 3.0 avg in 2014, plus 1 rec, 3 yds, 3.0 avg and 2), who shared the fullback job in 2014, return this year. Both are used primarily as blockers and also see time on special teams (Vainuku made the 2013 All-Pac-12 first team as a special teams performer).

"We are very fortunate to have fullbacks like Soma and Jahleel," said Sarkisian. "They have high football IQs and can do so much for us, which presents a real threat to the defense."

WIDE RECEIVERS

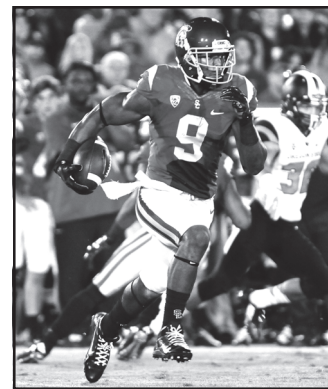

The 2015 Trojan receiving unit was hit hard when Nelson Agholor and George Farmer both decided to enter the NFL draft following their junior seasons (and another 41 receptions are gone now that tailback Javorius Allen also departed early for the NFL). Agholor, who was one of college football's most exciting wide receivers and returners when he earned All-American and All-Pac-12 first team honors in 2014, had one of the best pass catching seasons in USC history last season, grabbing 104 balls (third most ever at Troy) for 1,313 yards with 12 TDs. He also returned 2 punts for scores. He was third nationally in punt return TDs, seventh in receiving TDs, eighth in receptions (8.0), 12th in receiving yards (101.0) and 18th in punt returns (10.4) in 2014. His back-to-back 200-yard receiving games was a first in Trojan history. In his career, Agholor had 179 catches for 2,571 yards with 20 TDs and also returned a school-record 4 punts for TDs (he had 3,572 all-purpose yards). He ranks eighth on USC's all-time receptions list and seventh on the career punt returns chart (540 yards), the only Trojan in both Top 8 rankings. Farmer, who had an off-injured career at USC, caught 25 passes last season with 4 TDs (he had just 30 career grabs).

But USC has another star wideout in the making—in the mold of recent standouts Agholor, Robert Woods and Marqise Lee—with sophomore Juju Smith (54 rec, 724 yds, 13.4 avg, 5 TD in 2014, plus 2 tcb, 3 yd, 1.5 avg and 11 KOR, 132 yd, 12.0 avg and 5 tac), a 2014 Freshman All-American first teamer who could be in the discussion for the 2015 Biletnikoff Award and All-American honors. His 123 receiving yards versus Fresno State in 2014 were the most by any Trojan first-year freshman in a season opener and his 3 touchdown catches at Washington State tied a USC freshman record.

Then there's the most exciting player in college football: soph Adoree' Jackson (10 rec, 138 yds, 13.8 avg, 3 TD in 2014, plus 23 KOR, 684 yds, 29.7 avg, 2 TD and 2 PR, 12 yds, 6.0 avg and 1 tcb, 5 yds, 5.0 avg and 49 tac, 4 for loss, 10 dfl, 1 FF, 1 FR), the heralded 3-way performer who earned 2014 Freshman All-American first team acclaim and was the Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year. Also a long jumper on USC's track team, he got 34 snaps on offense in 2014 (expect more this year) and produced 3 touchdowns among his 10 receptions (including an electrifying 71-yard TD catch-and-run against Nebraska). He also should start again at cornerback, where he had 49 tackles last fall, and return kickoffs, where he had a pair of TDs last year. He was the first USC player to see significant action on offense/defense/special teams since 1997 and he became the first Trojan to start a game on both offense and defense (he did so versus Notre Dame last year) since at least the late 1960s. He could be in line for All-American notice and major national awards in 2015 (his statistics last year were comparable to those of Michigan's 3-way star Charles Woodson when he won the Heisman in 1997).

Also back in the wide receiver mix are often-used junior Darreus Rogers (21 rec, 245 yds, 11.7 avg, 4 TD in 2014, plus 1 PR, 5 yds, 5.0 avg and 1 KOR, 11 yds, 11.0 avg and 1 tcb, 5 yds, 5.0 avg and 1 tac), who started 3 times last season and has 43 career receptions, and sophomores Steven Mitchell (7 rec, 82 yds, 11.7 avg, 2 TD and 1 tac in 2014), a 2-time starter last year, and Ajene Harris (4 rec, 38 yds, 9.5 avg in 2014), who was slowed most of 2014 with a hamstring injury (he played in 5 games, starting once), along with senior George Katrib (8 tac in 2014), a one-time walk-on who was awarded a scholarship a year ago.

JUJU SMITH

There also are 4 walk-ons available, although none caught a pass in 2014: senior David Mellstrom, juniors Robby Kolanz and Christian Tober (he missed most of last year with a broken collarbone) and sophomore Aaron Minor.

A pair of 6-4 junior college All-Americans should figure prominently into the wide receiver rotation in 2014 as juniors: Isaac Whitney (Riverside Community College in Riverside (Calif.), who enrolled at USC this spring and will participate in spring drills, and De'Quan Hampton (Long Beach City College in Long Beach, Calif.), who comes aboard in the fall. Whitney caught 49 balls last year in juco, while Hampton had 64 grabs.

Also, a trio of incoming fall freshmen might be used as wideouts in addition to playing other positions: fleet tailback Dominic Davis (Bishop Alemany High in Mission Hills, Calif.), who was fourth in the California state 100-meter dash in 2014, cornerback Isaiah Langley (Foothill High in Pleasanton, Calif.), who had 33 receptions and 12 TDs as a senior, and cornerback-safety Ykili Ross (Riverside Poly High in Riverside, Calif.), who had 50 catches and 15 TDs as a senior. Both Davis and Langley were prep All-Americans.

"History tells us that USC always has great wide receivers and this year will be no different," said Sarkisian. "JuJu has an opportunity to up his game to the next level this year. And I don't think there's a more exciting performer in the game than Adoree', as he can do something spectacular whenever he touches the ball. Their maturation and the maturation of all of the receivers will be critical for us to be balanced on offense. The receivers also must develop a rapport with Cody and they must all play at a high level this season."

TIGHT ENDS

USC's most worrisome offensive unit from a depth and experience standpoint in 2015 is tight end, now that Randall Telfer has graduated. He had 34 starts in his career with 65 receptions and 12 TDs (including 21 catches in 2014).

Sophomore Bryce Dixon (14 rec, 198 yds, 14.1 avg, 4 TD in 2014) played often as Telfer's backup last year. A good mid-range receiver, he averaged a touchdown every 3.5 catches. Junior Jalen Cope-Fitzpatrick missed the 2014 season while academically ineligible (he is working to regain his status). Before that, he appeared in 23 games as a reserve, but had just 3 catches.

Also available is sophomore walk-on Connor Spears, who had to sit out 2014 after transferring from Columbia.

Freshman Tyler Petite (Campolindo High in Moraga, Calif.), a prep All-American who had 37 catches with 9 TDs as a senior, will push for immediate playing time when he arrives in the fall. Two other incoming fall freshmen who were prep All-Americans, inside linebacker Osa Masina (Brighton High in Cottonwood Heights, Ut.) and outside linebacker Porter Gustin (Salem Hill High in Salem, Ut.), might also get a look at tight end.

"Tight end is the position of our biggest concern because we don't have the depth we want or need," said Sarkisian. "We need everyone to step up here. We might have to rely on some young player to do double duty and use their athletic ability."

OFFENSIVE LINEMEN

USC's entire offensive line—and then some—returns intact in 2015. In fact, the only player missing who had any appreciable experience is graduated Aundrey Walker, but he was a little-used reserve in 2014 (he had 18 career starts at guard and tackle earlier in his career).

Anchoring USC's line once again will be senior center Max Tuerk, a 3-year starter who earned All-Pac-12 first team honors in 2014. The All-American candidate figures to be under strong consideration for the 2015 Rimington Award. He is versatile enough to play any line position (he started at left tackle in 2012 and left guard and right tackle in 2013).

A pair of 2014 Freshmen All-American first teamers return in sophomores Toa Lobendahn, who started the first 8 games last season at left guard before moving into the left tackle role for the final 5 outings when injuries struck, and guard Viane

Talamaivao, who started last year's final 11 games at right guard.

Both starting tackles are back in juniors Chad Wheeler, a 2-year starter on the left side who missed the final 5 games of 2014 with a knee injury (he'll sit out 2015 spring drills while recuperating), and massive right tackle Zach Banner (1 tac in 2014), who stands 6-9.

There also are 2 other experienced sophomores: guard Damien Mama, who had 4 starts last year (USC's first 2 games at right guard and last 2 at left guard) and guard-center Khaliel Rodgers, who started 3 late-season games at left guard in 2014. In the Fresno State opener, Mama and Lobendahn became just the second pair of USC first-year freshmen in the post-World War II era to start on the offensive line, but it was the first time that a Trojan first-year freshman O-line duo started an opener.

Vying to get into the playing rotation are junior guard Jordan Simmons, who has been bothered by knee injuries during his Trojan career, sophomore tackle-guard Nico Falah and redshirt freshmen Jordan Austin, a tackle, and tackle-guard Chris Brown.

Also available are walk-ons Eric Jepson, a senior guard, and redshirt freshmen Quinn Bassler at tackle and Richie Wenzel at center.

Three freshmen will battle for time on the line, including a pair of prep All-Americans who graduated a semester early from high school and enrolled at USC this spring: tackle Chuma Edoga (McEachern High in Powder Springs, Ga.) and tackle-guard Roy Hemsley (Windward High in Los Angeles, Calif.). Joining them in the fall will be center Cole Smith (Mission Viejo High in Mission Viejo, Calif.), whose father, Doug, was a 6-time Pro Bowl center with the Rams and then was a USC assistant coach in the mid-1990s.

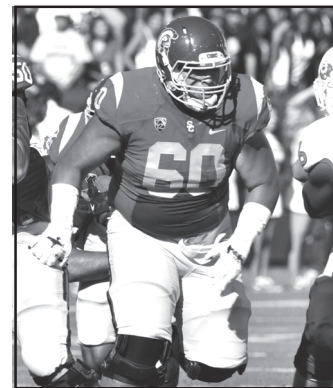

"When you build a team, you have to start up front, and we've done that now by developing the players we had on the roster as well as bringing in some talented recruits," said Sarkisian. "We are fortunate that all of our starters are back this year, as well as some players returning from injuries and some really good newcomers. I love our line's overall athleticism, toughness and attitude, plus its versatility and depth. I think Max is the best center in the country and Toa is on his way to an all-star career."

DEFENSE

Seven defensive starters return from 2014: safety-outside linebacker Su'a Cravens, cornerback-wide receiver-returner Adoree' Jackson, inside linebacker Anthony Sarao, tackle Antwaun Woods, tackle-end Delvon Simmons, cornerback Kevin Seymour and co-starting safeties Leon McQuay III and John Plattenburg. Other defensive players back with career starts are outside linebackers Scott Felix and Jabari Ruffin, inside linebacker Michael Hutchings, tackle-end Claude Pelon and cornerback Chris Hawkins.

Although USC welcomes back last season's team leaders in tackles for loss, interceptions, fumble recoveries and deflections, gone are its top 2 tacklers (and 4 of its top 6) and its co-leaders in sacks and forced fumbles. Under defensive coordinator Justin Wilcox, Troy uses a multiple-front defense, run out of a 3-4 base with 4-3 principles applied. Last season, the Trojans did not allow any opponent to score on a game-opening drive and they were the only team in the nation to not surrender a passing touchdown in the first 4 games. Troy was in the nation's Top 20 in turnover margin, red zone defense and third down conversion defense. Among USC's superlative defensive performances in 2014: limiting Oregon State to 181 total yards (USC's fewest since 2009) and Boston College to 54 passing yards (USC's fewest since 2008), keeping Arizona and California under their averages by more than 100 total yards and 10 points, holding Arizona State to 230-plus rushing yards under its average (and Nebraska and Arizona to 100-plus yards under their rushing averages) and forcing the starting quarterbacks at Oregon State, Colorado and Boston College to career-low passing yards. However, USC's total yards allowed average of 407.9 was the highest in its history, while its scoring defense (25.2) was the second highest since 2001, its rushing defense (133.4) was the third highest since 2002 and its passing defense (274.5) was the highest since 2005. And the 302 first downs allowed by the Trojans in 2014 ranked in the bottom 20 nationally.

"We laid down a solid defensive foundation last year, and now we must build on it and improve," said Sarkisian. "We want to play with passion on every play and come with a bully mentality. We have the pieces in place and the scheme to have a successful, stingy defense."

DEFENSIVE LINEMEN

USC's defensive line should be a senior-laden, experienced unit in 2015, despite the huge hole left by 2-time All-American first team defensive end Leonard Williams' early departure for the NFL draft. A likely Top 5 draft pick, Williams had 218 tackles in his 3-year starting career, including 36.5 for losses (with 21 sacks). Last fall, he notched 80 tackles (second on USC), with team bests of 7 sacks and 3 forced fumbles.

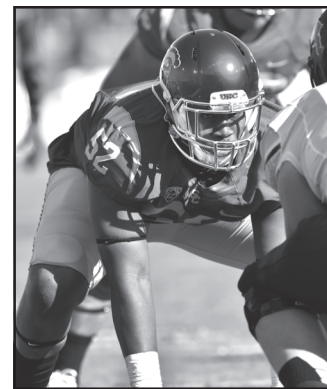

However, USC's other line starters from 2014 return in seniors Antwaun Woods (37 tac, 1 for loss, 1 sack, 1 dfl in 2014), the nose tackle who missed the Holiday Bowl with a chest muscle injury (he'll skip 2015 spring drills while recovering), and tackle-end Delvon Simmons (44 tac, 2.5 for loss, 1 sack, 1 FR, 1 dfl, 1 BLK FG in 2014), who had a solid showing after transferring from Texas Tech (he played some at nose tackle last year).

Then there are senior tackle-end Claude Pelon (19 tac, 6 for loss, 2.5 sack, 2 dfl, 1 BLK FG in 2014), who saw lots of time at both tackle and nose tackle last year (he had 3 starts) after transferring from a junior college, senior tackle Cody Temple (10 tac, 3 for loss, 2 sack in 2014), who played a good amount as a backup at nose tackle, and sophomore tackle Kenny Bigelow, who has yet to play at USC (he missed last season with a knee injury after redshirting in 2013).

Senior end Greg Townsend Jr. (9 tac, 3 for loss, 2 sack in 2014) was Williams' backup last fall and saw action in 9 games (with 2 starts). He could be slowed in 2015 spring practice with a foot injury. Simmons and Pelon could work at the end spot, as will redshirt freshman end Malik Dorton, who began 2014 as an outside linebacker.

ANTWAUN WOODS

Two walk-on D-linemen also are available: senior nose tackle Joey Augello (1 tac in 2014) and junior end Jeff Miller.

Entering the line competition in the fall will be 5 freshmen: prep All-Americans Jacob Daniel (Clovis North High in Clovis, Calif.), a tackle, and end-tackle Rasheem Green (Serra High in Gardena, Calif.), plus tackle Noah Jefferson (Liberty High in Henderson, Nev.), whose father played professionally, and Christian Rector (Loyola High in Los Angeles, Calif.) and tackle Kevin Scott (Salesian High in Los Angeles, Calif.).

"We lost a generational player in Leonard, but we are thankful that this year's defensive line has a nice mix of veterans and talented young players," said Sarkisian. "There is lots of senior leadership, while at the same time the new players will be hungry to push for playing time."

OUTSIDE LINEBACKERS

USC should be fine at outside linebacker in 2015 even though the eligibility of steady rush outside linebacker J.R. Tavai, who had 20 starts over the past 3 seasons, has expired. Gone are his 130 career tackles (24 for losses, with 10.5 sacks). He had 53 stops in 2014, including 13.5 for losses (with a team-best 7 sacks).

Playmaking junior Su'a Cravens (68 tac, team-best 17 for loss, 5 sack, 9 dfl, team-best 3 int with 1 TD in 2014) returns after playing a hybrid strong safety-strongside outside linebacker role last year. The 2-year starter made All-Pac-12 first team and was a Sophomore All-American first teamer in 2014, and this year the All-American candidate is a nominee for the Bednarik and Nagurski Awards. Cravens was in the national Top 25 in tackles for a loss (1.3) in 2014 and his team-high 17 TFLs were not only the most of any defensive back in the country last year but were the most by a non-defensive lineman at USC since 2000. Always around the ball, Cravens made 68 tackles and 9 deflections last fall, and he also topped the Trojans in interceptions with 3 (including a 31-yard scoring runback against Oregon State).

Junior Scott Felix (36 tac, 5 for loss, 1.5 sack, 2 dfl, team-best 2 FR, 1 FF in 2014) could assume Tavai's spot, as he was the oft-employed backup there last year (even starting 5 times). His 2 fumble recoveries were a 2014 team best.

Others seeking key playing time at outside linebacker are juniors Quinton Powell (13 tac, 2 for loss, 1 sack in 2014) and Jabari Ruffin, who missed the 2014 campaign with a knee injury, senior Charles Burks (1 tac, 1 for loss, 1 sack in 2014) and redshirt freshman Don Hill.

Looking to make an impact when they enroll this fall as freshmen will be Porter Gustin (Salem Hill High in Salem, Ut.), whose father played quarterback at Wyoming and whose mother and aunt played basketball at BYU, and John Houston Jr. (Serra High in Gardena, Calif.). Gustin also might be tried at tight end.

"In our system, the outside linebacker needs to be a versatile player," said Sarkisian. "This position is critical to our success on defense. We have a group of players who have the ability to defend the run, rush the passer and drop in coverage while playing with high intelligence. Su'a is the model for that type of player and I believe he will continue to show this year that he is one of the nation's top defensive players."

INSIDE LINEBACKERS

Four-year starting inside linebacker Hayes Pullard, whose 377 career tackles are sixth most in USC history, has exhausted his eligibility and his reliable play will be missed in 2015. He was the first Trojan since 1977-79 to lead USC in tackles for 3 seasons, including in 2014 when he had 95 stops with 8 deflections.

But Pullard's partner on the inside, senior Anthony Sarao (74 tac, 1 for loss, 1 sack, 3 dfl, 2 int with 1 TD in 2014), returns for his third year as a starter. Sarao is Troy's top returning tackler (he had 74 last year when he also picked off 2 passes, returning 1 for a TD) and in his career he has made 158 tackles.

Also back in the picture is senior Lamar Dawson, a 3-year starter whose 2013 mid-season knee injury kept him out of action all of last year, too. He has 137 tackles in his career.

Others aiming to get into the inside linebacker rotation are junior Michael Hutchings (20 tac, 1 int in 2014), who started once last fall, and sophomore Olajuwon Tucker (3 tac in 2014).

There also are 4 walk-ons available: junior Nick Schlossberg, sophomore Joel Foy (1 tac in 2014) and redshirt freshmen Grant Moore and Reuben Peters.

Prep All-American Cameron Smith (Granite Bay High in Granite Bay, Calif.) was a semester-early graduate in high school who enrolled at USC this spring and will participate in spring practice as a freshman. Coming in the fall as a frosh is prep All-American Osa Masina (Brighton High in Cottonwood Heights, Ut.), who also might see work at tight end.

"We lost a real leader in Hayes, but Anthony is a veteran who can lead this unit," said Sarkisian. "It's a position of good depth and talent. There will be a healthy competition to see who starts and who plays significant roles for us."

DEFENSIVE BACKS

USC's secondary could be improved in 2015 despite losing 2 key components from 2014: starting free safety Gerald Bowman, who posted 72 tackles and 2 interceptions last season, and cornerback Josh Shaw, who only appeared in Troy's final 3 games of 2014 after being suspended in fall camp (he started the last 2 contests) but during his 4-year career between USC and Florida had 130 tackles and 6 interceptions in 24 starts at corner and safety.

This year, junior Su'a Cravens (68 tac, team-best 17 for loss, 5 sack, 9 dfl, team-best 3 int with 1 TD in 2014) could return to the strong safety job he held in 2013 or more likely he again will be used as a hybrid strong safety-strongside outside linebacker as he was last year. The 2-year starter was a 2014 All-Pac-12 first team and Sophomore All-American first team pick and in 2015 could be up for the Bednarik and Nagurski Awards as well as All-American acclaim. He was in the nation's Top 25 in tackles for a loss (1.3) in 2014 and his USC-best 17 were the most of any defensive back in the country last year as well as the most by a USC non-defensive lineman since 2000. He had 68 tackles and 9 deflections last fall and also led Troy in interceptions with 3 (including a TD).

Another versatile playmaker like Cravens who returns as a starter in 2015 is breathtaking sophomore cornerback-wide receiver-returner Adoree' Jackson (49 tac, 4 for loss, 10 dfl, 1 FF, 1 FR in 2014, plus 10 rec, 138 yds, 13.8 avg, 3 TD and 23 KOR, 684 yds, 29.7 avg, 2 TD and 2 PR, 12 yds, 6.0 avg and 1 tcb, 5 yds, 5.0 avg). A candidate for All-American and major national awards in 2015 (he put up stats in 2014 that compared to those of Michigan's 3-way standout Charles Woodson when he was the 1997 Heisman winner), Jackson was a Freshman All-American first teamer and the Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year last season while garnering nationwide attention as a 3-way performer. Besides starting at cornerback, where he had 49 tackles last fall while usually pitted against—and often locking down—the opponents' top receiver, he saw action as a wide receiver (catching 3 TDs) and a kickoff returner (with a pair of TDs). In 2014, he became the first USC player to see significant action on offense/defense/special teams since 1997 and the first Trojan to start a game on both offense and defense (as he did against Notre Dame) since at least the late 1960s. He also is a long jumper on USC's track team.

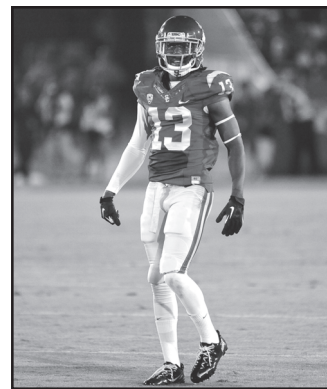

USC's other starting corner from 2014 also is back: senior Kevon Seymour (49 tac, 1 for loss, team-best 13 dfl, 1 int, 1 FR in 2014), a 2-year starter who topped the Trojans last year with 13 deflections to go with his 49 tackles.

Junior Leon McQuay III (36 tac, 0.5 for loss, 4 dfl, 2 int, 1 FR, 1 FF in 2014) and soph John Plattenburg (32 tac, 5 dfl in 2014) return with 2014 starting experience at safety, McQuay getting 9 starts at strong safety and Plattenburg starting 6 of the final 7 games (half at free safety and the others at strong safety).

Battling to see action at cornerback will be well-tested sophomores Chris Hawkins

ADOREE' JACKSON

KEVON SEYMOUR

(32 tac, 1 for loss, 2 dfl, 1 int in 2014), who started the first 4 games last year, and Jonathan Lockett (5 tac, 1 dfl in 2014), plus senior Ryan Dillard (4 tac in 2014), a one-time walk-on who was awarded a scholarship last year, and redshirt freshman Lamont Simmons.

Five walk-ons provide depth in the secondary, but only soph safety Matt Lopes (4 tac in 2014), who played the entire second half at Washington State last year when Cravens went down with an injury, has seen substantial playing time. The others are sophomore cornerback Kevin Carrasco and 3 redshirt frosh: cornerback Jalen Jones and safeties Joe Harding and Davonte Nunnerly.

This fall, several touted freshmen will join the defensive backfield, including prep All-Americans Iman Marshall (Long Beach Poly High in Long Beach, Calif.), a corner, and safety Marvell Tell III (Crespi High in Encino, Calif.), as well as a pair of wide receivers who might be tried in the secondary in prep All-American Isaiah Langley (Foothill High in Pleasanton, Calif.) at cornerback and Ykili Ross (Riverside Poly High in Riverside, Calif.) at cornerback or safety.

"We had growing pains in the secondary last year as we played a lot of youngsters who got better as the season went on," said Sarkisian. "This year, I believe the secondary will be a strength for us, especially when you have someone like Adoree' out there who can impact a game quickly. There will be lots of competition to get on the field and that will make us better at every spot."

SPECIAL TEAMS

USC's punter (Kris Albarado), snapper (Zach Smith), holder (Conner Sullivan), kickoff man (Alex Wood) and primary kickoff returners (Adoree' Jackson and JuJu Smith) return from last year, but a new placekicker and punt returner must be found to replace a pair of departed record setters.

Last year, USC returned 2 kickoffs and 2 punts for scores, finished in the upper fourth of the country in punt returns (9.7) and kickoff returns (22.1), missed only 2 field goals, saw its punting average increase from 2013 and blocked a pair of field goals. But Troy also had 2 kicks blocked, gave up a scoring kickoff return and was in the national bottom 5 in punt return defense (16.3), bottom 25 in net punting (35.0) and bottom 30 in kickoff return defense (22.5).

"We really value special teams play and spend a lot of time on it," said Sarkisian. "It showed last year in our return game, where we always want to be explosive and aggressive. But we need to develop consistency in our coverage units. And the competition to find a new kicker will be one of the key battles to watch on the team this year."

PUNTERS

Senior Kris Albarado (60 P, 41.4 avg in 2014 with 2 BLK, plus 1 tac) returns for his third year as the Trojan punter. After being asked to be a placement punter in 2013, he let loose last season and upped his punting average by more than 4 yards to 41.4. Eleven more of his boots traveled at least 50 yards in 2014 than the previous year, although his percentage of punts inside the 20 declined by 7%.

Untested walk-on redshirt freshman Reid Budrovich, who can also placekick, will back up Albarado.

PLACEKICKERS

After handling USC's placekicking duty the past 4 seasons, Andre Heidari has graduated and leaves behind big shoes to fill. In his career, he nailed 49-of-66 field goals, including 4 that went at least 50 yards (giving him 3 of the 9 longest 3-pointers in Trojan history), and he set Pac-12 records for PATs (187) and PAT attempts (193). Last year, he was good on 9-of-11 field goals (including a pair of 50-yarders) and 49-of-50 PATs. He also kicked off in USC's first 5 games, a role he handled the previous 3 years.

Battling to replace Heidari will be junior walk-on Alex Wood (12-of-12 PAT in 2014, plus 2 tac), who was perfect on all 20 of his PAT tries when he was called up to fill in briefly for an injured Heidari in 2012 and again last year (Wood, however, has not attempted a field goal), and untried left-footed sophomore Matt Boormeester, who redshirted last fall after transferring from a junior college. Wood also handled USC's kickoff chores the last half of 2014, getting touchbacks on 14 of his 48 kickoffs (another 11 pinned opponents within the 20-yard line).

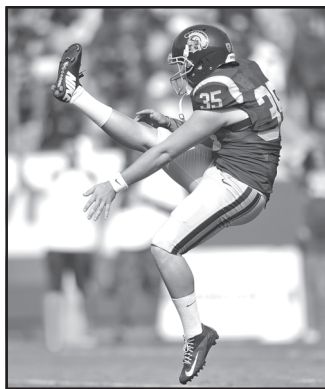

There also is a pair of redshirt freshmen walk-on kickers in Wyatt Schmidt and Reid Budrovich (he might also work at punter).

SNAPPERS

Junior Zach Smith (2 tac in 2014) is back for his third year as USC's snapper after flawlessly filling that role on all placekicks and punts in 2014 (he handled just the placement kicks in 2013).

HOLDERS

Junior walk-on quarterback Conner Sullivan is in line to be the holder again on all placement kicks, a job he handled smoothly last season. Senior quarterback Cody Kessler will once again serve as the well-versed backup holder (he spent 2012 as USC's holder).

RETURNERS

USC must find a new punt returner with the early departure to the NFL of wide receiver Nelson Agholor, who was always a threat in that role. In his career, he returned a school-record 4 punts for touchdowns, including a pair last season when he ranked third in the nation in punt return TDs and 18th in punt returns (10.4). He ended up seventh on the Trojan career punt returns chart (540 yards). Agholor also returned kickoffs occasionally in his career, averaging 18.5 yards on 24 runbacks.

Sophomore cornerback-wide receiver Adoree' Jackson (23 KOR, 684 yds, 29.7 avg, 2 TD in 2014, plus 2 PR, 12 yds, 6.0 avg) again will be USC's kickoff returner and he is capable of popping for a touchdown whenever he touches a kickoff. USC's first 3-way player since 1997, his 2 scoring kickoff returns last year (100 yards at Utah and 98 yards against Nebraska) were the most by a Trojan since 1996. The 2014 Freshman All-American first teamer was second nationally in kickoff return TDs and fifth in kickoff returns (29.7), and he already ranks 14th on USC's career kickoff return chart with 684 yards.

Soph wideout JuJu Smith (11 KOR, 132 yd, 12.0 avg in 2014), also a 2014 Freshman All-American first team pick, joined Jackson last year returning kicks and could do so again in 2015.

Other possible kick and punt returners include junior wide receiver Darroe Rogers (1 PR, 5 yds, 5.0 avg and 1 KOR, 11 yds, 11.0 avg in 2014), junior tailback Justin Davis or perhaps one of the incoming freshmen.

2015 USC FOOTBALL PLAYER BIOGRAPHIES

(Class years are listed athletically/academically, with "*" indicating player who has used up redshirt year.)

(35) KRIS ALBARADO

Punter, 5-10, 200, Sr./Sr.
Lake Charles, LA (St. Louis HS)

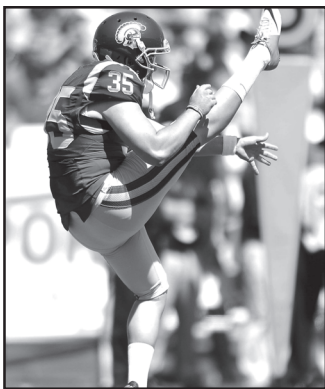

CAREER: He averages 38.9 yards on his 139 career punts, with 43 pinning opponents within the 20-yard line and 19 traveling at least 50 yards.

2015: Albarado, known for his accuracy in placing punts deep in opponents' territory, returns for his third season as USC's punter as a senior in 2015.

2014: Albarado was USC's starting punter for his second season as a junior in 2014. He averaged 41.4 yards on his 60 punts in 2014, with 16 pinning opponents within the 20 (26.7%) and 15 traveling at least 50 yards. Only 4 of his 60 punts were touchbacks. He also made a tackle in 2014.

He did not have to punt in the Fresno State opener. He averaged 47.8 yards on 4 punts and had a tackle at Stanford. He averaged 37.5 yards on a career-high 10 punts at Boston College, with 1 pinning BC within the 20. Against Oregon State, he averaged 40.5 yards on his 6 punts, with 4 pinning the Beavers within the 20 and 2 traveling 50-plus yards. Against Arizona State, he averaged 59.5 yards on his 2 punts (with a career-long 65-yarder). At Arizona, he averaged 38.8 yards on his 6 punts (2 pinned Arizona within the 20). He averaged 36.2 yards on 5 punts against Colorado, with 2 pinning the Buffaloes within the 20. At Utah, he averaged 50.2 yards on his 5 punts, with 3 traveling 50-plus yards. At Washington State, he averaged 41.2 yards on 5 punts, with 2 pinning the Cougars within the 20 and 1 traveling 50-plus yards. Against California, he averaged 36.7 yards on 3 punts. At UCLA, he averaged 43.2 yards on his 6 punts with 3 pinning the Bruins within the 20 and 2 traveling at least 50 yards. Against Notre Dame, his only punt pinned ND within the 20. Against Nebraska, he averaged 40.1 yards on his 7 punts (2 others were blocked), with a 53-yarder and 1 that pinned the Cornhuskers within the 20.

2013: Albarado served as USC's punter as a sophomore in 2013, averaging 37.1 yards on 79 punts while appearing in all 14 games. Some 27 of his 79 punts (34.2%) pinned opponents within the 20-yard line and he booted 4 in excess of 50 yards. Only 4 of his 79 punts were touchbacks. He also had 2 tackles. He made 2013 All-Pac-12 honorable mention.

KRIS ALBARADO

At Hawaii, he made his career debut by averaging 43.3 yards on his 6 punts, with a 64-yarder, and 4 of his punts pinned UH within the 20. Against Washington State, he averaged 40.3 yards on his 6 punts (with one pinning the Cougars within the 20). He averaged 44.0 yards on his 4 punts against Boston College, with a 55-yarder and 2 pinning the Eagles within the 20. Five of his 7 punts (he averaged 35.4 per punt) against Utah State pinned the Aggies within the 20-yard line, including 2 inside the 5, to help him earn Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week. He averaged 42.8 yards on his 5 punts at Arizona State (with a 54-yarder). Four of his 6 punts against Arizona pinned the Wildcats within the 20, including 3 inside the 10-yard line (2 of those were downed at the 4-yard line), as he averaged 35.7 yards per punt. He averaged 37.3 yards on his 6 punts at Notre Dame, with 3 pinning the Irish within the 20. He averaged 38.4 on 7 punts, with 2 touchbacks, against Utah and he made a tackle. At Oregon State, he averaged 36.2 yards on his 6 punts, with 2 pinning the Beavers within the 20. At California, he averaged 31.5 yards on his 4 punts. He averaged 35.3 yards on his 6 punts against Stanford, with 3 pinning the Cardinal within the 20. At Colorado, he averaged 30.2 yards on his 6 punts, with 2 pinning CU within the 20. Against UCLA, he averaged 33.5 yards on his 6 punts (with a 51-yarder), with 1 pinning the Bruins within the 20. He averaged 36.0 yards on his 4 punts against Fresno State.

2012: Albarado was the backup punter as a redshirt freshman in 2012, but did not see any action.

2011: Albarado redshirted as a freshman punter in 2011, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Max Preps All-American Medium Schools second team and All-State 4A as a senior punter at St. Louis High in Lake Charles (La.). He averaged 45.3 yards on his 24 punts (with a long of 65 yards) and put 8 punts within the 20-yard line in 2010.

As a junior in 2009, he averaged 41.8 yards on his 38 punts, with 19 punts within the 20.

He averaged 40.7 yards on his 37 punts (with 8 within the 20) as a sophomore in 2008.

PERSONAL: He is a policy, planning and development major at USC.

(56) JORDAN AUSTIN

Offensive Tackle, 6-5, 280, Fr./So.
Claremont, CA (Claremont HS)

2015: Austin will battle for playing time at offensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2015.

2014: Austin, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2014 after graduating a semester early from high school, redshirted as a first-year freshman offensive tackle in 2014. He was sidelined all season after having pre-season surgery on both hips.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2013 Prep Star All-West, Inland Valley Daily Bulletin All-Inland Valley first team and All-Sierra League first team as a senior offensive lineman at Claremont (Calif.) High.

He was a 3-year starter.

PERSONAL: He has a B average (3.02 GPA) at USC. His father, Ray, played football at UNLV and Southern Utah.

(73) ZACH BANNER

Offensive Tackle, 6-9, 350, Jr./Sr.
Tacoma, WA (Lakes HS)

2015: Banner, USC's biggest player who also played basketball at USC earlier in his career, returns as the starting right offensive tackle as a junior in 2015.

2014: Banner started all of 2014 at right offensive tackle as a sophomore. He made 2014 CollegeFootball News Sophomore All-American honorable mention. He had 1 tackle in 2014.

2013: Banner played briefly as a backup offensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2013, appearing in 2 early-season games (Hawaii, Boston College), then was sidelined the rest of the year with an injury that required surgery on both hips.

2012: Banner redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle in 2012, his first year at USC.

BASKETBALL: He joined the 2013 USC men's basketball team after the conclusion of the 2012 football season, but did not see any action.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2011 honors included USA Today All-USA first team, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, SI.com All-American first team, Max Preps All-American second team, Max Preps All-American Medium Schools first team, Prep Star Top 150 Dream Team, ESPNU 150, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Seattle Times All-State, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Tacoma News Tribune Northwest Nuggets and Tacoma News Tribune All-Area first team as a senior offensive lineman at Lakes High in Lakewood (Wash.). He was a finalist for the 2012 Watkins Award, given to the nation's top African-American high school scholar-athlete.

As a junior in 2010, he made USA Today All-USA first team, Max Preps All-American second team, Max Preps All-American Medium Schools first team, Max Preps Junior All-American first team and All-State 3-A first team.

He also played basketball at Lakes, helping the team to the 2011 state 3A title.

PERSONAL: He is a communication major at USC.

ZACH BANNER

(95) KENNY BIGELOW

Defensive Tackle, 6-3, 310, So.*/Jr.
Elkton, MD (Eastern Christian Academy)

2015: After missing the last 2 seasons while redshirting and then recuperating from an injury, Bigelow will look to break into the playing rotation at defensive tackle as a sophomore in 2015.

2014: Bigelow, who was set to push for key playing time at nose tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2014, instead was sidelined all season after tearing knee ligaments a month prior to 2014 fall camp.

2013: Bigelow, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2013 after graduating a semester early from high school, redshirted as a freshman defensive tackle in 2013, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: his 2012 honors included Prep Star All-American Dream Team, ESPN 150, Rivals 100 and Scout 100 as a senior defensive lineman and tight end at Eastern Christian Academy in Elkton (Md.), which played an abbreviated 3-game schedule.

As a junior in 2011 at Red Lion Christian Academy in Bear (Del.), he made ESPNHS.com Underclass All-American first team and Max Preps Junior All-American second team while posting 40 tackles and 20 sacks.

As a 2010 sophomore, he had 39 tackles, 5 sacks and 1 fumble recovery on defense (he also played linebacker) and 6 receptions for 70 yards (11.7 avg.) with 1 TD on offense. Current Trojan Khaliel Rodgers also prepped at Eastern Christian and Red Lion Christian.

(39) MATT BOERMEESTER

Placekicker, 6-0, 185, So.*/Jr.
San Diego, CA (Cathedral Catholic HS/ Saddleback JC)

2015: The left-footed Boermeester will compete for the placekicking job as a sophomore in 2015.

2014: Boermeester, who transferred to USC in the fall of 2014 from a junior college, redshirted as a sophomore placekicker in 2014. He was awarded a scholarship at USC by virtue of an NCAA rule known as "blueshirting" (it allows a non-recruited student-athlete to receive athletic financial aid after beginning practice and have that student-athlete count towards the next year's signing class if the school has reached its NCAA-maximum aid limit for the current year).

JUNIOR COLLEGE: Boermeester was named to the 2013 All-Southern California Football Association Southern Division second team as a freshman placekicker at Saddleback Junior College in Mission Viejo (Calif.). He hit 11-of-13 field goals (with a long of 43 yards) and 43-of-48 PATs in 2013.

He did not play football in 2012, as he greyshirted (he did not enroll as a full-time college student).

HIGH SCHOOL: He played baseball at Cathedral Catholic High in San Diego (Calif.), helping his team win the 2012 CIF San Diego Division III title as a senior outfielder.

PERSONAL: He also played soccer as a youngster. His father, Peter, was a placekicker at UCLA (1977-78-79), where he still ranks ninth on the Bruins' career field goals list (31) and 19th in points scored (160, leading UCLA in scoring his last 2 seasons) and setting a school record for consecutive games with a field goal (15) as he earned 1978 All-Pac-10 first team honors, then playing with the Cleveland Browns in 1980.

(77) CHRIS BROWN

Off. Tackle-Guard, 6-5, 295, Fr.*/So.
Los Angeles, CA (Loyola HS)

2015: Brown will compete for playing time at offensive tackle and guard as a redshirt freshman in 2015.

2014: Brown redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle at USC in 2014, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2013 ESPN 300, Prep Star All-West, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, All-CIF Pac-5 Division, Los Angeles Times All-Area, Wave Newspapers All-West Region and All-Serra League Lineman of the Year as a senior offensive tackle at Loyola High in Los Angeles (Calif.).

He was a 3-year starter at Loyola. Current Trojans Joe Harding and Reuben Peters and incoming Trojan Christian Rector also prepped at Loyola.

(4) MAX BROWNE

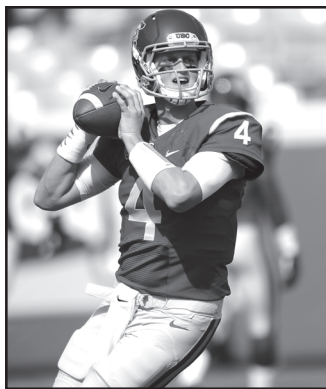

Quarterback, 6-5, 220, So.*/Jr.
Sammamish, WA (Skyline HS)

2015: Browne will compete to be the No. 2 quarterback again as a sophomore in 2015.

2014: Browne served as the No. 2 quarterback as a redshirt freshman in 2014. He won USC's Co-Lifter of the Year Award. Overall in 2014 while seeing limited action in 6 games (Fresno State, Oregon State, Colorado, Utah, Washington State, Notre Dame), he completed 3-of-7 passes (42.9%) for 30 yards. He played the entire fourth quarter against Fresno State and went 3-of-4 for 30 yards. He played the final series against Oregon State but did not throw a pass. He played all of the fourth quarter against Colorado but missed on his 2 pass attempts. He threw an incomplete pass at Utah. He played the last 2 series at Washington State but did not throw a pass. He played 4 snaps in the fourth quarter against Notre Dame but did not throw a pass.

2013: Browne, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2013 after graduating a semester early from high school, redshirted as a freshman quarterback in 2013, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2012 honors included Gatorade National Football Player of the Year, USA Today All-USA Offensive Player of the Year, Parade All-American, Prep Star All-American Dream Team, Max Preps All-American first team, ESPN 150, Rivals 100, Scout 100,

MAX BROWNE

Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Gatorade Washington Player of the Year, AP Class 4A State Player of the Year, Tacoma News Tribune Northwest Nuggets, Seattle Times Washington All-State Player of the Year, Tacoma News Tribune All-State first team and Seattle Times All-Area as a senior quarterback at Skyline High in Sammamish (Wash.). He completed 277-of-377 (73.5%) of his passes for 4,526 yards with 49 TDs and 5 interceptions in 2012 as Skyline went 14-0 and won the Class 4A state championship.

In his 4-year career (3 years as a starter), he set state records for passing yards (12,953, eighth best nationally) and completions (882) while completing 70.4% of his passes for 146 TDs and 25 interceptions.

As a 2011 junior, he was SI.com All-American honorable mention, ESPNHS.com Underclass All-American, Max Preps Junior All-American first team, Gatorade Washington Player of the Year, Seattle Times Washington Co-Player of the Year, AP Class 4A State Player of the Year and Seattle Times Class 4A State Player of the Year as he completed 288-of-409 passes (70.4%) for 4,034 yards with 45 TDs and 7 interceptions and also ran for 221 yards on 42 carries (5.3 avg.) with 2 TD. Skyline won the Class 4A state title in 2011.

As a 2010 sophomore, he made Max Preps Sophomore All-American first team as he completed 294-of-432 passes (68.1%) for 4,182 yards with 50 TDs and 13 interceptions. Skyline was the Class 4A state runnerup in 2010.

As a 2009 freshman, he was 23-of-35 (65.7%) for 205 yards with 2 TDs.

He also played basketball at Skyline. PERSONAL: He is a communication major at USC with a B average (3.28 GPA). His brother, Mitch, played quarterback at Claremont McKenna College from 2001 to 2004.

Costa Mesa, CA (Edison HS)

CAREER: He has 4 tackles, including 2 sacks, in his career.

2015: Burks will serve as a backup outside linebacker as a senior in 2015.

CHARLES BURKS

2014: Burks served as a backup outside linebacker and played on special teams as a junior in 2014. Overall in 2014 while appearing in all 13 games, he had 1 sack (at Washington State).

2013: Burks served as a backup outside linebacker and played on special teams as a sophomore in 2013. Overall in 2013 while appearing in 12 games (all but Washington State and Utah State), he had 3 tackles, including a 7-yard sack. He had a tackle at Oregon State and 2 tackles at California, with the sack.

2012: Burks was a reserve defensive end, fullback and special teams performer as a redshirt freshman in 2012. He saw brief action in 4 games in 2012 (Hawaii and Syracuse on special teams, Colorado and Arizona State at defensive end), but he did not make a tackle or carry the ball.

2011: Burks redshirted as a freshman defensive end and fullback in 2011, his first year at USC, after having pre-season knee surgery.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Orange County Register All-Orange County second team and All-Sunset League Defensive Line MVP as a senior defensive end at Edison High in Huntington Beach (Calif.). He had 86 tackles, including 7.5 sacks, plus 3 deflections, 3 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries in 2010.

As a junior in 2009, he made Max Preps Junior All-American second team, All-CIF Pac-5 Division, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-Sunset League Defensive Line MVP while getting 52 tackles and 14 sacks. Edison was a 2009 Pac-5 Division finalist.

PERSONAL: He is a political science major at USC with a B average (3.15 GPA). He made 2014 Pac-12 All-Academic honorable mention, 2013 Pac-12 All-Academic first team and 2012 Pac-12 All-Academic honorable mention. Some of his artwork was displayed at the 2012 "Athletics" on-campus exhibit that featured the works of USC student-athletes.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT SU'A CRAVENS
Dan Greenspan, NFL.com: "If you don't know the name Su'a Cravens yet, you will soon enough."

Paul Myerberg, USA Today Sports: "I think Su'a Cravens is ready to explode - not a year from now and not at some point in November but today, right now, and with force...Cravens looks very much like an all-timer - no pressure, by the way - and seems ready to embrace those expectations, delivering along the back end in the mold of this program's long line of greats at the position."

Steve Sarkisian, USC head coach: "Su'a is a guy who can create turnovers, he can make tackles in the backfield, he can blitz off the edge, he can cover well. I think he's at his best when he's around the ball."

(22) JUSTIN DAVIS

Tailback, 6-1, 195, Jr./Jr.
Stockton, CA (Lincoln HS)

CAREER: He has 956 yards on 182 carries (5.3 avg) with 10 TDs and 14 receptions for 99 yards (7.1 avg) with 2 TDs in his career.

2015: Davis, a quick, darting runner, will battle for the starting tailback job as a junior in 2015.

2014: Davis was the backup tailback as a sophomore in 2014. Overall in 2014 while seeing action in all 13 games, he had 129 carries for 595 yards (4.6 avg) with 4 TDs, plus 13 receptions for 92 yards (7.1 avg) with 2 TDs. He sat out 2014 spring practice while recovering from a 2013 ankle injury.

He had 30 yards on 12 tries and he also had 2 receptions for 21 yards against Fresno State. He added 20 yards on 8 carries with a 1-

(55) LAMAR DAWSON

Inside Linebacker, 6-1, 230, Sr./Sr.
Junction City, KY (Boyle County HS)

CAREER: He has 137 tackles (7.5 for losses, with 2.5 sack), 4 deflections and 2 interceptions in his career. He has 20 career starts.

2015: Dawson, previously a starter for 3 seasons who has been sidelined the past year and-a-half with a knee injury, will look to contribute at inside linebacker as a senior in 2015.

2014: Dawson, who missed the last half of 2013 with an injury, hoped to regain his starting inside linebacker job as a senior in 2014, but instead redshirted while recovering from a 2013 knee injury. He sat out 2014 spring practice while recovering from that 2013 knee injury.

2013: Dawson started at linebacker for his third season as a junior in 2013 before suffering a mid-season left knee injury in practice that sidelined him the rest of the year. Overall in 2013 while starting USC's first 7 games (Hawaii, Washington State, Boston College, Utah State, Arizona State, Arizona, Notre Dame), he had 35 tackles, including 3.5 for losses of 12 yards (with 1.5 sacks for minus 9 yards), plus 2 deflections.

He had 5 tackles at Hawaii, then 6 tackles, including 1.5 for losses (with 0.5 sack), against Washington State, a tackle and deflection against Boston College, 7 tackles (1 for a loss) against Utah State, 6 tackles and a deflection at Arizona State, 4 tackles against Arizona and 6 tackles with a sack at Notre Dame before his season-ending knee injury occurred in practice the following week.

2012: Dawson started for his second season at middle linebacker as a sophomore in 2012. Overall while appearing in 12 games (all but Hawaii, which he missed with an injury) and starting 9 of those games (all but Syracuse, Arizona and Georgia Tech), he had 77 tackles (fourth on USC), including 2 for losses of 5 yards, plus 2 interceptions, 2 deflections and a forced fumble.

After getting 1 tackle against Syracuse, he had a game-best 10 tackles at Stanford, then 9 tackles against California, 4 tackles (0.5 for a loss) at Utah, 4 tackles at Washington and 3 tackles, 1 forced fumble and 1 deflection against Colorado. He had 5 tackles (0.5 for a loss) at Arizona, a game-best 11 tackles (0.5 for a loss) with a deflection against Oregon and a team-high 11 tackles with an interception against Arizona State. He had 6 tackles at UCLA and added 10 tackles (0.5 for a loss) against Notre Dame. He had 3 tackles and returned an interception 22 yards against Georgia Tech.

2011: Dawson emerged as the starting middle linebacker for the last 4 games (Colorado, Washington, Oregon, UCLA) of his 2011 freshman season, his first year at USC. Overall in 2011 while appearing in 8 games (all but Minnesota, Arizona State, Arizona, California), he had 25 tackles, including 2 for losses (with 1 sack). He had 6 tackles against UCLA, 4 versus Stanford and Colorado, 3 against Washington

(with a sack) and Oregon and 2 against Syracuse and Notre Dame. He sprained his ankle against Syracuse and missed the Arizona State, Arizona and California games. He made 2011 CollegeFootballNews.com Freshman All-American honorable mention. He became just the second Trojan letterman ever from Kentucky (joining LB Kurt Barber, who lettered 1988-91 after prepping at Paducah Tilghman High).

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Parade All-American, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, U.S. Army All-American, Max Preps All-American second team, Max Preps All-American Medium Schools first team, Rivals 100, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Dixie, Prep Star All-Southeast, Gatorade Kentucky Player of the Year, AP Kentucky Mr. Football and Louisville Courier-Journal All-State as a senior linebacker, running back and tight end at Boyle County High in Danville (Ky.). He had 158 tackles, including 8 sacks, plus 4 interceptions (1 for a TD) and 3 forced fumbles on defense in 2010, plus ran for 686 yards with 15 TDs and caught 19 passes for 270 yards (14.2 avg.) with 1 TD on offense. Boyle County won the 2010 Kentucky state 4A championship.

As a junior in 2009, he made Max Preps All-American Medium Schools first team, Max Preps Junior All-American first team and Louisville Courier-Journal All-State while getting 176 tackles, including 23 for losses, plus 2 interceptions, 3 forced fumbles and 2 fumble recoveries. Boyle County won the 2009 Kentucky state 4A championship.

In his career, he made 502 tackles as Boyle County went 43-1 his last 3 years.

He also threw the shot put at Boyle County, with a best of 52-9.

PERSONAL: He is a sociology major at USC. Some of his artwork was displayed at the 2014 "Artletics" on-campus exhibit that featured the works of USC student-athletes.

He had 1 tackle against Oregon State and Colorado, 4 tackles and a deflection at California and 3 tackles against Fresno State. He sat out the Hawaii opener with an injury. He missed 2013 spring practice while recuperating from 2012 neck surgery.

2012: Felix, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2012 after graduating a semester early from high school, was a backup linebacker and special teams player as a freshman in 2012. Overall in 2012, he appeared in USC's first 3 games (Hawaii, Syracuse, Stanford) and made 2 tackles (both against Hawaii). He then suffered a neck injury prior to the California game and had surgery that sidelined him the rest of the season, which allowed him to redshirt.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2011 honors included USA Today All-USA first team, Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, Prep Star Top 150 Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State second team, All-CIF Inland Division and All-Riverside County as a senior linebacker at Norco (Calif.) High. He had 96 tackles, including 6 sacks, and a fumble recovery in 2011.

He made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass second team, SectionSports.com All-Inland Empire second team and All-Big VIII League first team as a 2010 junior while getting 114 tackles (with 3 sacks) and a forced fumble.

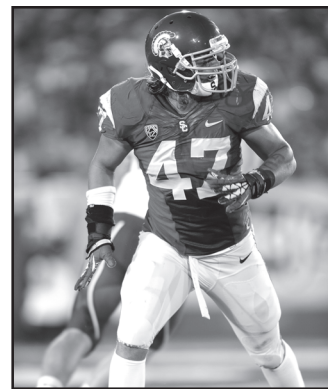

He was a 4-year starter at Norco.

PERSONAL: In the fall of 2014, he legally changed his last name from his mother's (Starr) to his father's (Felix). He is a theater major at USC. He and 15 of his USC teammates spent 5 days in Haiti in the spring of 2012 building homes and assisting those in need.

(2) ADOREE' JACKSON
Cornerback-Wide Receiver-Returner
5-11, 185, So./So.
Belleville, IL (Serra HS)

CAREER: He is already 14th on USC's career kickoff return list (684 yards).

2015: Jackson, the most exciting player in college football who is a candidate for major national awards and All-American honors, returns as a starting cornerback and a dangerous kickoff returner, plus he figures to again see significant action at wide receiver. USC's first 3-way player in nearly 20 years, he has drawn comparisons with former Michigan Heisman Trophy winner Charles Woodson (they posted comparable statistics). Jackson also long jumps for USC's track team.

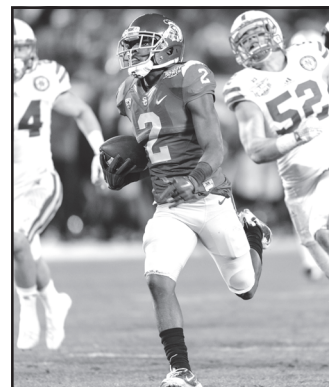

2014: Jackson made quite an impact on defense, offense and special teams as a first-year freshman cornerback, wide receiver and returner/coverage man in 2014. Overall in 2014 while appearing in all 13 games and starting 10 times at cornerback (at Stanford and then in USC's last 9 games) and once concurrently at wide receiver (Notre Dame), he had 49 tackles, including 4 for losses, 10 deflections, 1 forced fumble and 1 fumble recovery on defense, plus 10 receptions for 138 yards (13.8 avg) with 3 TDs and 1 carry for 5 yards (5.0 avg) on offense and 23 kickoff returns for 684 yards (29.7 avg) with 2 TD and 2 punt returns for 12 yards (6.0 avg).

He was used as a 3-way player in 8 games in 2014 (the first 4 and the last 4). The last Trojan to see a significant amount of time on offense/defense/special teams in a game was Chad Morton, who did so for several games in both his 1996 redshirt freshman and 1997 sophomore seasons when he played tailback, wide receiver, cornerback, safety and punt returner. Against Notre Dame in 2014, Jackson became the first Trojan to start on offense (wide receiver) and defense (cornerback) in a game since at least the late 1960s when starting records were first reliably kept during the 2-platoon era. Jackson's 2014 statistics were comparable to those of Michigan's 3-way star Charles Woodson when he won the Heisman in 1997.

He made the 2014 CollegeSportsMadness.com All-American second team (as a kickoff returner), as well as Football Writers Freshman All-American first team, Sporting News Freshman All-American first team, USA Today Freshman All-American first team, Scout Freshman All-American first team, Phil Steele Freshman All-American first team, CollegeFootballNews.com Freshman

All-American first team, ESPN.com True Freshman All-American first team and 247Sports True Freshman All-American first team. He was named the 2014 Pac-12 Defensive Freshman of the Year and made All-Pac-12 honorable mention, as well as the Athlon All-Pac-12 first team (as an all-purpose player), CollegeSportsMadness.com All-Pac-12 first team and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 second team (as a kickoff returner). He is second nationally in kickoff return TDs (2, first in Pac-12) and fifth in kickoff returns (29.7, second in Pac-12).

He had a tackle along with 3 receptions for 36 yards (with an 18-yard TD) and a 10-yard punt return against Fresno State while playing 52 plays (13 offense, 25 defense, 14 special teams). He had 2 tackles for loss, plus he caught a pass for minus 4 yards and returned 3 kickoffs for 81 yards at Boston College while playing 45 plays (2 offense, 30 defense, 13 special teams). Against Oregon State, he had a tackle and 2 deflections (including one that he tipped to teammate Leon McQuay, who made the interception) along with 2 kickoff returns for 58 yards while playing 44 plays (4 offense, 28 defense, 12 special teams). He had 5 tackles and returned 2 kickoffs for 56 yards against Arizona State. At Arizona, he had 7 tackles and returned a kickoff 34 yards. He had a 15-yard kickoff return and made a tackle before being sidelined with a hip injury against Colorado. He had 4 tackles (1 for a loss), a deflection, a forced fumble and a fumble recovery (on the same play) plus he returned 2 kickoffs for 127 yards (with a school record-tying 100-yarder for a TD) and a punt for 2 yards at Utah to earn College Football Performance Awards National Kickoff Returner of the Week and Pac-12 Special Teams Player of the Week honors. He had 8 tackles (1 for a loss) and 2 deflections, plus 3 kickoff returns for 67 yards, at Washington State. He had 5 tackles and 2 deflections on defense and 2 receptions for 17 yards on offense against California while playing 101 plays (75 on defense, 22 on special teams, 4 on offense). He had 5 tackles and a deflection and also returned 3 kickoffs for 54 yards and had a 5-yard rush at UCLA while playing 97 plays (74 on defense, 22 on special teams and 1 on offense). He had 3 tackles and a deflection and caught a 16-yard TD against Notre Dame as he became the first Trojan to start on offense (wide receiver) and defense (cornerback) in a game since at least the late 1960s when starting records were first reliably kept during the 2-platoon era while playing 49 snaps (35 on defense, 6 on offense, 8 on special teams) before being sidelined late in the first half with a concussion. Against Nebraska, he made 7 tackles and a deflection, caught 3 passes for 73 yards with a 71-yard TD and returned 3 kickoffs for 130 yards with a Holiday Bowl-record 98-yard TD while playing 103 plays (78 on defense, 21 on special teams, 4 on offense) to earn USA Today All-Bowl Team, CBSSports.com All-Bowl Team and ESPN.com Pac-12 All-Bowl Team honors.

TRACK: He is a long jumper on USC's track team in the spring of 2015.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2013 USA Today All-USA first team, Parade All-American first team, Prep Star All-American Dream Team, Max Preps All-American first team, Student Sports All-American first team, ESPN 300, Max Preps All-American Medium Schools first team, Cal-Hi Sports California Mr. Football, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division II first team, All-CIF Western Division Defensive Player of the Year, Los Angeles Times All-Area, Orange County Register Fab 15 first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay Player of the Year, Wave Newspapers All-West Region Player of the Year and All-Mission League MVP as a senior wide receiver, running back, defensive back and return specialist at Serra High in Gardena (Calif.). He ran for 639 yards on 66 carries (9.7 avg) with 5 TDs and caught 38 passes for 812 yards (21.4 avg) with 7 TDs on offense in 2013, plus he had 36 tackles, 6 interceptions (3 for touchdowns), 8 deflections and a forced fumble on defense and he had 3 TDs on returns. Serra played in the 2013 CIF Western Division final (he had a 92-yard punt return and a 93-yard kickoff return in the game).

As a 2012 junior, he made Max Preps All-American Medium Schools second team, Max Preps All-American Junior second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior first team, All-CIF Western Division Defensive Player of the Year, Los Angeles Times All-Area, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay Player of the Year, Los Angeles Wave Player of the Year and All-Mission League Defensive MVP. He had 33 receptions for 546 yards (16.6 avg) with 5 TDs and 175 yards on 7 carries (25.0 avg) with 5 TDs on offense, plus he had 56 tackles, 5 interceptions, 7 deflections, 2 forced fumbles and a fumble recovery on defense and averaged 37.8 yards on 12 punts. Serra won the 2012 CIF Western Division (he had a 78-yard TD run on a fake punt in the game) and CIF state championship Division II bowl game (he had a 95-yard run on a fake punt in the game).

As a sophomore in 2011, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore first team, South Bay Daily Breeze All-South Bay first team and All-Mission League first team as he had 2 receptions for 39 yards (19.5 avg) and made 23 tackles, 6 interceptions and 10 deflections.

He also was on a guard on Serra's basketball team and was on its track team, with career bests of 10.68 in the 100 meters, 21.59 in the 200 and 25-5.25 in the long jump. Serra won the 2013 CIF state championship while he placed second in the long jump at 24-7. He won the 2012 state long jump title at 20-0.5. He was named the 2012 Cal-Hi Sports California Sophomore Athlete of the Year and 2013 Cal-Hi Sports California Junior Athlete of the Year. Current Trojans Jalen Greene, Olajuwon Tucker and Jalen Jones and incoming Trojans Rasheem Green and John Houston Jr. also preppeped at Serra.

PERSONAL: He grew up in Illinois, then moved to California before his sophomore year at Serra.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT ADOREE' JACKSON

Tee Martin, USC wide receivers coach: "He has an unbelievable amount of talent. He can handle the installation on offense and defense and it's seamless. The one thing that stands out is how smart and productive he is."

Max Browne, USC quarterback: "I'm just impressed with the way he moves back and forth between offense and defense."

Steve Sarkisian, USC head coach: "I'm trying to find a flaw right now with the guy. He's prepared, he studies, he gets his rest, he recovers, he comes energized and, ultimately, he knows what he's doing and he's making plays."

Jake Davidson, Daily Trojan: "Jackson already is the best cover corner in the secondary. His return skills are so feared that teams are already kicking away from him. Not to mention the fact that though he has touched the ball sparingly on offense, he is a threat to score every time he gets his gloves on the pigskin."

ADOREE' JACKSON VS. CHARLES WOODSON

Here is how CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson's 2014 freshman year statistics compared to the last 3-way player to win the Heisman Trophy, 1997 winner Charles Woodson (CB-WR-RET) of Michigan:

GEORGE KATRIB

3 rushing touchdowns. He also has 7 pooch punts for a 33.0 average in his career.

2015: Heisman Trophy and All-American candidate Kessler, a senior who is the nation's most accomplished quarterback in 2015 after having the most efficient passing season in USC history, returns for his third season as the starter.

2014: Kessler had a record-setting season in his second year as the starting quarterback as a junior in 2014. Overall in 2014 while starting all 13 games, he completed 315-of-452 passes (69.7%) for 3,826 yards with 39 TDs and just 5 interceptions, plus he had 2 rushing TDs and averaged 33.0 yards on 7 pooch punts.

He made 2014 All-Pac-12 honorable mention, as well as the Phil Steele All-Pac-12 third team and CollegeSportsMadness.com All-Pac-12 third team. He was one of 11 finalists for the Manning Award (top quarterback) and one of 5 finalists for the Unitas Golden Arm Award (top senior/fourth-year quarterback). He won USC's Trojan Way Leadership Award and Player of the Notre Dame Game Award. He was third nationally in completion percentage (69.7%, first in Pac-12), fourth in both passing efficiency (167.1, second in Pac-12) and passing TDs (39, second in Pac-12), eighth in both points responsible for (19.1, third in Pac-12) and in completions (24.3, fourth in Pac-12), 12th in passing yards (294.3, fourth in Pac-12) and 24th in total offense (282.6, sixth in Pac-12).

In 2014, he set USC season records for completions (315), completion percentage (69.7), passing efficiency (167.1) and interception rate (1.11) and tied USC season marks for TD passes (39) and 300-yard passing games (7). His 39 TDs tied for second on the Pac-12 list. Against Power 5 opponents, his passing efficiency (160.2) was third best in the nation, his completion percentage (68.8%) was second and his passing TDs (29) was second. No quarterback in the nation threw as many passes as Kessler and had only 5 interceptions, and only 1 besides Kessler threw at least 35 TDs with just 5 or fewer interceptions. None of his first 190 passes in 2014 were intercepted (he had a streak of 195 extending to 2013) and only 5 of his 452 throws in 2014 were picked off. He threw 28 touchdowns in the last 7 games. He threw for at least 300 yards in a game 7 times in 2014, including once for 400 yards, and twice did so back-to-back. He threw at least 4 TDs 6 times in 2014. His 3,826 passing yards was second on the USC season list and his 3,674 yards of total offense was third on USC's season chart.

He threw for a career-high 394 yards versus Fresno State while hitting 25-of-37 passes with 4 TDs (all tying career bests) and he also opened the game's scoring with a 1-yard sneak as part of his 28 rushing yards (in the first half, he threw for 309 yards on 21-of-30 passing) to earn Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week honors. He hit 15-of-22 passes for 135 yards at Stanford, then was 31-of-41 (both career highs) for 317 yards with 4 TDs at Boston College. He completed 75% of his passes (24-of-32) for 261 yards with 2 TDs (including a 48-yard Hail Mary at the halftime gun) and no interceptions against an Oregon State defense that was leading the nation in pass efficiency defense (holding opposing quarterbacks to 42.3% completions and not allowing a passing TD). He was 28-of-45 (a career high attempts) for 273 yards against Arizona State and he also had an 8-yard rushing TD and averaged 33.8 yards on 4 pooch punts. He completed 20-of-30 passes for 185 yards and a TD at Arizona, but threw his first interception to snap a string of 190 straight passes without a pick in 2014 (and 195 dating to 2013). His 7 TD passes against Colorado set a USC game record and tied a Pac-12 regulation game record and his 5 TDs in the first half tied a USC mark (he had 4 TD tosses in the first quarter) as he averaged a TD pass every 2.7 completions and 3.7 attempts (he was 19-of-26 in the game for 319 yards with no picks, all in 3 quarters of play) to earn Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week, Walter Camp National Offensive Player of the Week, College Football Performance Awards National Performer of the Week and National Quarterback of the Week and College Sports Madness National and Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week honors. He completed 75% of his passes (24-of-32) at Utah for 264 yards and 2 TDs with 1 interception. He threw for a career-best 400 yards with 5 TDs (including a career-long 87-yarder) on 21-of-32 passes and also had a 23-yard punt at Washington State to earn College Sports Madness Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week honors. He hit 73.8% of his aeriels (31-of-42, a career-tying best for completions) for 371 yards and 4 TDs against California, his second consecutive 300-yard outing. He was 22-of-34 for 214 yards with a TD and an interception at UCLA and he also had a 38-yard punt. Against Notre Dame, he threw an Irish opponent record 6 touchdown passes while hitting 80% of his passes, completing a career-best 32 on 40 attempts (including 16 consecutive at one point) for 372 yards and no interceptions (his 5 scoring TDs in the first half tied a USC record and were the most ever thrown in a half against Notre Dame) and he also had a 35-yard punt to earn Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week and College Sports Madness Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week honors. Against Nebraska, he was the Holiday Bowl Offensive MVP as he completed 23-of-39 passes for 321 yards with 3 TDs and an interception.

2013: Kessler started all season at quarterback as a sophomore in 2013 and showed considerable progress. Overall in 2013 while starting all 14 games, he was 236-of-361 passing (65.4%) for 2,968 yards with 20 TDs and 7 interceptions, plus he had 1 rushing TD. He was named the starter after sharing the job for USC's first 2 games of 2013 with Max Wittek. He hit 70.8% of his passes (114-of-161) in the last 6 games with 11 TDs and just 2 interceptions. He is tied for 10th on USC's season passing list (236 completions) and is 11th on USC's season total offense chart (2,844 yards). He made 2013 CollegeFootballNews.com Sophomore All-American honorable mention. He made 2013 All-Pac-12 honorable mention. He won USC's Bob Chandler Award (athletics/academics/character).

CODY KESSLER

He made his first career start and was 10-of-19 for 95 yards with a TD and an interception at Hawaii while playing through the first series of the second half. He started against Washington State and was 8-of-13 for 41 yards with an interception while playing the first half and he also had a 4-yard scoring bootleg run. He started against Boston College and completed 15-of-17 passes (88.2%) for 237 yards and 2 TDs (with an 80-yarder), hitting 14 consecutive passes at one point, while playing until early in the fourth quarter. He completed 13-of-26 passes for 164 yards, with a 30-yard TD, against Utah State. He was 20-of-29 for 295 yards with 2 TDs and 2 interceptions at Arizona State. He was 15-of-30 for a career-high 297 yards with 2 long TDs (62 and 63 yards) against Arizona. He was 20-of-34 for 201 yards with an interception at Notre Dame. He was 21-of-32 (a season best for completions) for 230 yards with a 30-yard TD pass against Utah. He hit 81.0% of his passes (17-of-21) for 247 yards with a TD (71 yards) and an interception at Oregon State. He hit 82.3% of his passes (14-of-17) for 170 yards and 2 TDs (12 and 57 yards) at California while playing until midway through the third quarter. He was 25-of-37 (67.6%), a season best for completions and attempts, for 288 yards with a short TD toss against Stanford to earn Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Week honors. He was 19-of-28 for 184 yards with a pair of TDs (20 and 10 yards) in 3 quarters of work at Colorado. He was 17-of-28 for 174 yards with a 22-yard TD against UCLA. He threw a career-best and Las Vegas Bowl-record 4 touchdowns while hitting 73.3% of his passes (22-of-30) for a career-best 345 yards against Fresno State to win Las Vegas Bowl MVP honors.

2012: Kessler was a backup quarterback as a redshirt freshman in 2012 and also was the holder on all placekicks (beginning with the Utah game). Overall in 2012 while appearing in 10 games (all but Syracuse, Stanford, California), he was 2-of-2 (100.0%) for 9 yards. In his only 2 games seeing action at quarterback, he took the game's final snap against Hawaii and hit both of his passes for 9 yards late in the Colorado game.

2011: Kessler, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2011 after graduating a semester early from high school, redshirted as a freshman quarterback in 2011, his first year at USC. He served as the backup quarterback.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, U.S. Army All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Rivals 100, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Gatorade California Player of the Year, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, Bakersfield California All-Bakersfield Player of the Year and All-Yosemite League Offensive MVP as a senior quarterback at Centennial High in Bakersfield (Calif.). He completed 175-of-251 (69.7%) of his passes for 2,831 yards and 36 TDs with just 2 interceptions in 2010 and rushed for 324 yards on 75 carries (4.3 avg.) with 8 TDs. He also averaged 36.4 yards on 32 punts in 2010, with a 13 pinning opponents within the 20-yard line and a long of 60 yards. Centennial was 10-2 in 2010.

As a 2009 junior, he was named Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team and Bakersfield Californian Area Player of the Year as he completed 188-of-312 passes (60.3%) for 2,195 yards with 14 TDs and 6 interceptions and also ran for 12 TDs. Centennial was the 2009 CIF Central Section runnerup.

As a sophomore in 2008, he completed 133-of-288 passes (63.6%) for 1,878 yards with 10 TDs and 7 interceptions and he also ran for 373 yards with 13 TDs.

He also played basketball at Centennial, where he averaged 29.5 points, 11 rebounds and 5 assists and was named the Bakersfield Area Player of the Year (becoming the first player to be so honored in both football and basketball).

PERSONAL: He is a sociology major at USC. He and 15 of his USC teammates spent 5 days in Haiti in the spring of 2012 building homes and assisting those in need.

WHAT THEY ARE SAYING ABOUT CODY KESSLER

Bill Plaschke, Los Angeles Times: "Cody Kessler has stepped strongly and squarely into the role of The Next Great USC Quarterback...He is living it, unleashing his best for the biggest of national moments, just as former Trojan stars Matt Leinart and Carson Palmer did during their Heisman Trophy-winning seasons."

Matt Leinart, USC's 2004 Heisman Trophy quarterback: "(His performance in the 2014 Notre Dame game) makes him a pre-season Heisman Trophy candidate for 2015. His stats are amazing and he's just getting better and better."

Steve Sarkisian, USC head coach: "At some point, people are going to recognize him. Those are some ridiculous numbers he is putting up...He can make and see things extremely well and make decisive decisions quickly. I think that comes from his basketball experience, playing point guard, having him make those types of decisions. For us, that's vitally important. He has really quick hands and throws accurately."

Jim Mora, UCLA head coach: "He's very, very impressive. He can extend plays and throws with tremendous accuracy. Makes all the throws you need to make. He's a big-time player."

Brian Kelly, Notre Dame head coach: "His efficiency is outstanding. He's smart and he plays well within the offense. On merit, his numbers stand up with all the quarterbacks in the country."

Sonny Dykes, California head coach: "Kessler is really doing a nice job executing that offense and taking care of the ball and not making mistakes."

Matt Hinton, Grantland ESPN.com: "When Kessler heats up, opposing secondaries go up in flames very, very quickly...Even more impressive than the big plays may be the almost suspicious absence of bad plays."

La Habra, CA (La Habra HS)

2015: The precocious Lobendahn, headed for an all-star career, returns as a starter at offensive guard or tackle as a sophomore in 2015.

2014: Lobendahn, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2014 after graduating a semester early from high school, started all season on the offensive line as a first-year freshman in 2014, the first 8 games at left guard and the last 5 at left tackle. He made the 2014 Football Writers Freshman All-American first team, Sporting News Freshman All-American first team, USA Today Freshman All-American first team, Scout Freshman All-American first team, Phil Steele Freshman All-American first team, ESPN.com True Freshman All-American first team, 247Sports True Freshman All-American first team and CollegeFootballNews.com Freshman All-American second team. He made 2014 All-Pac-12 honorable mention. Against Fresno State, he and Damien Mama became just the second pair of USC first-year freshmen in the post-World War II era to start on the offensive line (Travis Claridge and Faaesea Mailo did so 3 times in 1996), but it was the first time that a Trojan first-year freshman o-line duo started an opener. He made the ESPN.com All-Bowl Team and ESPN.com Pac-12 All-Bowl Team.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made the 2013 Prep Star All-American, ESPN 300, Max Preps All-American Medium Schools second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division II first team, All-CIF Southwest Division, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team, Whittier News All-Area and All-Freeway League Lineman of the Year as a senior offensive and defensive lineman at La Habra (Calif.) High.

As a 2012 junior at Lakewood (Calif.) High, he made the Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior first team.

PERSONAL: He has a B+ average (3.51 GPA) at USC. His father, Vince, was a lineman at Utah (1990-93) and then in the Arena League with the Albany Firebirds (1994) and St. Louis Stampede (1995) before coaching at BYU as a graduate assistant (1998-99) and as an assistant and head coach at the high school level.

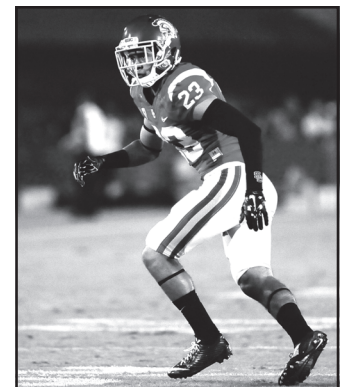

(23) JONATHAN LOCKETT
Cornerback, 5-11, 175, So./So.
Bellflower, CA (Mater Dei HS)

2015: Lockett will compete for key playing time at cornerback as a sophomore in 2015.

2014: Lockett saw action in 12 games (all but Stanford) as a backup cornerback and on special teams as a first-year freshman cornerback in 2014, getting 5 tackles and a deflection. He had 3 tackles at Arizona, a tackle and deflection against Colorado and a tackle against Nebraska.

HIGH SCHOOL: He made 2013 Prep Star All-American, Student Sports All-American second team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, All-CIF Pac-5 Division, Los Angeles Times All-Area, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Orange County Register All-Orange County Defensive Player of the Year and All-Trinity League Co-Player of the Year as a cornerback, wide receiver and returner at Mater Dei High in Santa Ana (Calif.). He had 34 tackles, 4 interceptions and 9 deflections on defense in 2013, along with 1,135 all-purpose yards, including 31 receptions for 557 yards (18.0 avg) with 4 TDs, 13 punt returns for 240 yards (18.5 avg) and 7 kickoff returns for 167 yards (23.9 avg).

As a 2012 junior, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Junior first team as he had 43 tackles, 7 interceptions, 6 deflections, 2 fumble recoveries on defense, along with 1,113 all-purpose yards, including 10 catches for 83 yards (8.3 avg) with 3 TDs, 22 kickoff returns for 632 yards (28.7 avg) and 23 punt returns for 295 yards (12.8 avg).

JONATHAN LOCKETT

As a sophomore in 2011, he made Cal-Hi Sports All-State Sophomore first team as he had 12 tackles, 2 interceptions and 4 deflections, plus 5 punt returns for 109 yards (21.8 avg) and 4 kickoff returns for 111 yards (27.8 avg). In his career, he had 2,598 all-purpose yards. Current Trojan Grant Moore also prepped at Mater Dei.

(23) TRE MADDEN

Tailback, 6-1, 225, Sr./Sr.
Aliso Viejo, CA (Mission Viejo HS)

2015: The hard-charging Madden, who has missed 2 of the past 3 years with injuries, will battle for the starting tailback job as a senior in 2015.

2014: Madden, who hoped to revert to his 2013 form in 2014 as a junior tailback, instead was sidelined all season after suffering turf toe in 2014 fall camp.

2013: Madden, who missed 2012 with a knee injury, got off to a hot start in 2013 at tailback as a sophomore before hamstringing injuries slowed him down a bit. Overall in 2013 while appearing in 11 games (all but Notre Dame, California and Fresno State) and starting the first 6 games, he ran for 703 yards on 138 carries (5.1 avg) with 3 TDs, and he added 15 receptions for 201 yards (13.4 avg) with 4 TDs. He also threw an interception on his only pass attempt. He suffered a hamstring injury against Arizona and missed the Notre Dame game, then he reinjured his hamstring at Oregon State and missed the California game. He had 4 100-yard rushing outings in 2013. He was the first Trojan to open a season with 3 consecutive 100-yard rushing games since Marcus Allen had 11 straight to open his 1981 Heisman Trophy season. Besides he and Allen (who also did so in the first 9 games in 1980), the only other Trojans to open a season with 3 consecutive 100-yard rushing games were Charles White (first 3 in 1978), Ricky Bell (first 5 in 1976), O.J. Simpson (first 5 in 1968), Mike Garrett (first 5 in 1965) and Don Williams (first 3 in 1928). The last Trojan with 3 consecutive 100-yard rushing games was Reggie Bush in 2005 (5 in a row, games 2 to 6), but those stats were later vacated due to NCAA penalty; revised: LenDale White (3 in a row in 2005, games 3 to 5). His 4 receiving touchdowns were the most by a Trojan running back since fullback Stanley Havili had 5 in 2007 and the most by a USC tailback since Reggie Bush had 7 in 2004. He made 2013 CollegeFootballNews.com Sophomore

All-American honorable mention. He sat out 2013 spring drills while recuperating from the 2012 knee injury.

He made his first career start at tailback and responded with 109 yards on 18 carries (he also caught a 10-yard pass) at Hawaii. He rushed for 151 yards on 32 carries against Washington State to become the first Trojan to open a season with back-to-back 100-yard rushing outings since Marcus Allen did so in his 1981 Heisman Trophy campaign (his 32 carries were the most by a Trojan since Sultan McCullough had 39 against California in 2001). He ran for 102 yards on 16 carries against Boston College (the first Trojan to open a season with 3 consecutive 100-yard games since Marcus Allen in 1981) and scored touchdowns on a 30-yard run and 5-yard reception. He had his 100-yard rushing streak snapped against Utah State, as he ran for 93 yards on 24 carries (with a short TD) and he also got 3 passes for 15 yards. He had a game-high 128 rushing yards on 20 carries (with a 24-yard TD) and caught 3 passes for 64 yards with 2 TDs (10 and 48 yards) at Arizona State (he also threw an interception out of the Wildcat formation). Against Arizona, he had 28 yards on 5 carries and caught a 63-yard TD before being sidelined with a hamstring injury in the second half. He returned to action against Utah and had a game-high 60 yards on 12 carries and a 3-yard catch. He had a carry for no yards at Oregon State. He had 11 yards on 6 carries and he caught a pass for 0 yards against Stanford. He had a 6-yard run at Colorado. He had 15 yards on 3 carries against UCLA.

2012: Madden, who was switched from linebacker to tailback in 2012 spring practice and looked impressive, was on track to be a key contributor as a sophomore in 2012 before a torn left knee ligament sidelined him for the 2012 season and allowed him to redshirt.

2011: Madden served as a backup strongside linebacker and played on special teams as a freshman in 2011, his first year at USC. Overall in 2011 while appearing in all 12 games (he started at strongside linebacker at Colorado), he had 15 tackles, including 1 for a loss. He had 3 tackles against Washington and 2 each against Minnesota, Arizona, Notre Dame and Oregon.

HIGH SCHOOL: His 2010 honors included Super Prep All-American, Prep Star All-American, U.S. Army All-American, USA Today All-USA second team, Rivals 100, Prep Star Dream Team, Super Prep All-Farwest, Prep Star All-West, Orange County Register Fab 15 second team, Long Beach Press-Telegram Best in the West first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State first team, Tacoma News Tribune Western 100, Max Preps All-State Division I first team, SectionSports.com All-State first team, All-CIF Pac-5 Division, SectionSports.com All-Southern Section first team, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-South Coast League Defensive MVP as a senior linebacker and Wildcat quarterback at Mission Viejo (Calif.) High. Despite missing 4 games with a foot injury in 2010, he had 81 tackles, with 3 sacks, and an interception on defense, while he completed 13-of-26 passes (50.0%) for 311 yards and 2 TDs and ran for 310 yards with 7 TDs on offense. Mission Viejo was a 2010 CIF Pac-5 Division finalist.

As a junior in 2009, he made Max Preps All-State Division I first team, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Underclass first team,

All-CIF Pac-5 Division, Los Angeles Times All-Star, Orange County Register All-Orange County first team and All-South Coast League Defensive MVP. He had 115 tackles on defense, plus ran for 222 yards and completed 5-of-7 passes (71.4%) on offense in 2009. Current Trojan Jahleel Pinner incoming Trojan Cole Smith also prepped at Mission Viejo.

PERSONAL: He's a communication major at USC. His real first name is Curtis. His father, Curtis, was a fullback and defensive end at Kansas State (1988-91). His grandfather is Lawrence McCutcheon, a Colorado State and NFL All-Pro running back with the Los Angeles Rams (1972-79), Denver Broncos (1980) and Buffalo Bills (1981) who set the since-broken Rams career rushing record (6,186 yards), led the Rams in rushing 5 times and played in Super Bowl XIV (he now is a scout with the Rams). His uncle is former USC (1995-98) cornerback Daylon McCutcheon (a 2-time All-Pac-10 pick) who played with the Cleveland Browns (1999-2006). He was born in Texas.

(75) MAX TUERK

Center, 6-6, 285, Sr./Sr. Trabuco Canyon, CA (Santa Margarita HS)

2015: Tuerk, a 3-year starter who is USC's most versatile offensive lineman (he has started at every position on the line), returns as USC's starting center and is a candidate for the Rimington Trophy and All-American honors.

2014: Tuerk started all 13 games at center as a junior in 2014. He made the 2014 All-Pac-12 first team as well as the ESPN.com All-Pac-12 first team, Athlon All-Pac-12 first team, Phil Steele All-Pac-12 first team and CollegeSportsMadness.com All-Pac-12 first team. He won USC's Offensive Lineman of the Year Award.

2013: After a standout rookie campaign in 2012, Tuerk started 13 games at left offensive guard and once (at Oregon State) at right tackle as a sophomore in 2013. He is versatile enough to play any offensive line spot. He made 2013 CollegeFootballNews.com Sophomore All-American honorable mention. He made 2013 All-Pac-12 honorable mention and Phil Steele All-Pac-12 third team. He even returned a short kickoff 1 yard against Fresno State.

2012: As just a first-year freshman, Tuerk emerged as the starting left offensive tackle for USC's final 5 regular-season games of 2012 after serving as an often-used back earlier in the season, and then he started at left guard in the season finale against Georgia Tech. When he got his first start at Arizona, he became the first-

(31) SOMA VAINUKU

Fullback, 6-0, 270, Sr./Sr. Eureka, CA (Eureka HS)

CAREER: In his career, he has 144 yards on 22 carries (6.5 avg) with 2 TDs, 17 receptions for 124 yards (7.3 avg) with 1 TD, 2 punt returns for 16 yards (8.0 avg), 25 tackles and 3 blocked punts (with 1 for a safety). He has 9 career starts.

2015: Vainuku will see the field often at fullback and as an impact maker on various special teams as a senior in 2015.

2014: Vainuku saw key action at fullback and on special teams as a junior in 2014. Overall in 2014 while appearing in 10 games (all but Colorado, Utah, Washington State) and starting twice (Stanford, Boston College), he had 7 carries for 40 yards (5.7 avg) with 1 TD, along with 6 tackles. He strained his hamstring at Arizona and missed the next 3 games (Colorado, Utah, Washington State). He was slowed in 2014 spring practice with a knee injury.

He had 24 yards on 2 carries, including an 11-yard TD, and a tackle against Fresno State. He then ran 2 times for 5 yards at Stanford, had an 11-yard run at Boston College and had a carry for no yards and 2 tackles on special teams against Oregon State. He had a tackle against California, 1 carry for no yards at UCLA and a tackle against Notre Dame.

2013: Vainuku played often at fullback as a sophomore in 2013, but he really made his mark on special teams. Overall in 2013 while appearing in all 14 games and starting 3 times (California, Stanford, UCLA), he had 78 yards on

8 carries (9.8 avg) with 1 TD, plus 9 receptions for 74 yards (8.2 avg) with 1 TD, 2 punt returns for 16 yards (8.0 avg), 13 tackles and 3 blocked punts with a safety. He made the 2013 All-Pac-12 first team (as a special teams player). He was named USC's Special Teams Player of the Year.

He had 2 tackles on special teams at Hawaii and 1 tackle against Washington State. He had a 14-yard reception and a tackle against Boston College and Vainuku a 2-yard catch at Arizona State. He had a tackle and blocked a punt against Arizona. He had 2 catches for 16 yards at Notre Dame and 2 tackles each against Utah and Oregon State. He caught a 15-yard pass, made a tackle and blocked a punt that was returned for a TD (he was credited with a 3-yard punt return) at California. He caught 2 passes for 16 yards, including a 1-yard TD, and he made a tackle against Stanford. He blocked a punt out of the end zone for a safety (it counted as a 13-yard punt return), made a tackle on a kickoff, ran for a career-best 70 yards on 5 carries (with a 52-yard TD, the first rushing TD of his career) and caught 2 passes for 11 yards at Colorado. He ran for 8 yards on 3 carries and had a tackle against Fresno State.

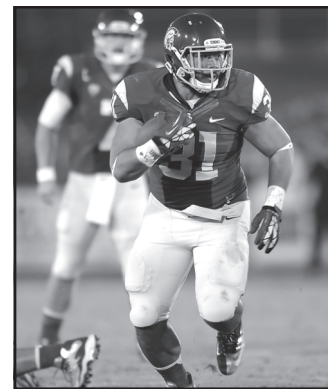

2012: Vainuku started at fullback and played on special teams as a redshirt freshman in 2012. Overall in 2012 while appearing in all 13 games and starting 4 times (Syracuse, California, Washington, Notre Dame), he had 7 carries for 26 yards (3.7 avg.), caught 8 passes for 50 yards (6.2 avg.) and made 6 tackles.

He had 2 catches for 23 yards and a tackle against Hawaii, then had a 6-yard catch, a run for 0 yards and 2 tackles at Syracuse. He had 6 yards on 2 carries at Stanford, had 10 yards on 2 carries and added a tackle against California, had 2 catches for 3 yards at Utah, had a 5-yard catch at Washington and had a 3-yard catch at Arizona. He had 10 yards on 2 carries, plus a tackle, against Oregon, then had a tackle against Arizona State and had a 10-yard catch against Notre Dame.

2011: Vainuku, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2011 after graduating a semester early from high school, redshirted as a freshman fullback in 2011, his first year at USC.

HIGH SCHOOL: He originally signed with USC in February of 2010, but did not qualify for admission, so he returned to Eureka (Calif.) High but did not play football in 2010.

His 2009 honors included Super Prep All-Farwest, Cal-Hi Sports All-State Medium Schools first team and All-Humboldt-Del Norte Big Four League first team as a senior linebacker and fullback at Eureka. He had 2,202 yards on 252 carries (8.7 avg.) with 38 TDs on offense and 14 tackles, 1 interception and 1 forced fumbled on defense in 2009. Eureka won the 2009 CIF North Coast Division II title.

As a junior in 2008, he had 800 rushing yards with 14 TDs on offense and 34 tackles, 1 interception and 1 forced fumble on defense.

As a sophomore in 2007, he had 1,500 rushing yards with 27 TDs.

PERSONAL: He is a sociology major at USC. His father was a rugby star in Tonga. His cousin is former USC All-American (2005-08) and current Cincinnati Bengals linebacker Rey Mauluga.

(72) CHAD WHEELER

Offensive Tackle, 6-7, 280, Jr.*/Sr. Santa Monica, CA (Santa Monica HS)

CAREER: He has 22 career starts.

2015: Wheeler hopes to bounce back from a 2014 knee injury and resume his starting role at left offensive tackle as a junior in 2015. He likely will sit out 2015 spring practice while recovering from that knee injury.

2014: Wheeler started USC's first 8 games at left offensive tackle as a sophomore in 2014, but he tore ligaments in his right knee at Utah (although he played a full series with the injury) and missed the final 5 games. He won USC's Bob Chandler Award (athletics/academics/character).

2013: Wheeler started all season at left offensive tackle as a redshirt freshman in 2013 and did an admirable job. He also was used on some special teams and blocked a field goal against Stanford. He made 2013 Athlon Freshman All-American third team and CollegeFootballNews.com Freshman All-American honorable mention. He was USC's Co-Lifter of the Year.

2012: Wheeler, who enrolled at USC in the spring of 2012 after graduating a semester early from high school, redshirted as a freshman offensive tackle in 2012. He missed most of 2013 spring practice with a knee injury.

HIGH SCHOOL: He missed part of his 2011 senior year with a shoulder injury that required surgery at Santa Monica (Calif.) High while playing both offensive tackle and defensive end, but earned Super Prep All-Farwest and Prep Star All-West.

He made 38 tackles (with 5 sacks) and 2 deflections on defense as a 2010 junior.

PERSONAL: He is an international relations major at USC.

STEVE SARKISIAN

USC HEAD FOOTBALL COACH

Second-year USC football head coach Steve Sarkisian didn't have to be shown around the USC campus or be instructed on Trojan gridiron lore when he was hired as the school's head football coach in December of 2013. He already was quite familiar with all things Troy, from its physical layout to its academic prestige to its football tradition and culture.

That's because this is the 40-year-old Sarkisian's fifth time at USC, first as a student-athlete in the early 1990s, then as a graduate assistant coach nearly a decade later, next as an assistant coach (he was the quarterbacks coach on USC's 2003 national championship squad), then as the offensive coordinator following a foray into the NFL and now as the head coach after spending the previous 5 years guiding Washington (where he went to 4 bowl games and beat 8 AP Top 25 teams).

When Sarkisian was hired as USC's head coach, Trojan athletic director Pat Haden said: "We are delighted to welcome Steve Sarkisian back to the Trojan Family. We conducted a very exhaustive and thorough search. We kept coming back to Sark. He embodies many of the qualities for which we looked. He is an innovative coach who recruits well and develops players. He is a proven and successful leader. He connects with people. He has energy and passion. He knows how to build a program and create a culture that we value. He is committed to academic success and rules compliance. And he understands the heritage and tradition of USC."

Sarkisian has a 6-year head coaching record of 43-33, including 9-4 in his inaugural season at USC in 2014 (the most victories by a first-year USC coach since College Football Hall of Famer John Robinson's 11 in 1976 and third most ever, as fellow College Hall of Famer Howard Jones also had 11 in 1925), with wins at No. 10 Arizona and No. 13 Stanford (snapping the Cardinal's 17-game home winning streak) and versus No. 25 Nebraska in the Holiday Bowl. He is just the third Trojan head coach to win his debut against Notre Dame. Three of USC's losses in 2014 were by a total of 13 points, with two coming on the opponents' final play of the game. Sarkisian never had more than 57 recruited scholarship Trojans suit up for a game in 2014 because of the NCAA sanctions-mandated scholarship limitation, plus injuries, roster departures and ineligibilities. Eleven true freshmen played significant roles for USC in 2014, including 8 who combined for 58 starts.

In 2014, Sarkisian produced a pair of All-American first teamers (defensive end Leonard Williams and wide receiver-returner Nelson Agholor), a Sophomore All-American first teamer (safety-outside linebacker Su'a Cravens), a quartet of Freshman All-American first teamers (cornerback-wide receiver-returner Adoree' Jackson, who was the Pac-12 Freshman Defensive Player of the Year, along with offensive guard-tackle Toa Lobendahn, wide receiver JuJu Smith and offensive guard Viane Talamaivao) and a quintet of All-Pac-12 first teamers (Williams, Agholor, Cravens, tailback Javorius Allen and center Max Tuerk).

Quarterback Cody Kessler had the most efficient passing season in USC history (69.7% completions, 39 TDs, 5 interceptions), Agholor had 104 receptions (third best in USC history) and Allen rushed for 1,489 yards (the most by a Trojan since 2005). USC's offense ranked in the national Top 25 in passing efficiency, passing offense, third down conversions and scoring offense, while the defense was in the nation's Top 20 in turnover margin, red zone defense and third down conversion defense.

Sarkisian's initial 2014 recruiting class ranked among the nation's Top 10 (tops in the Pac-12) and his 2015 class was No. 1 nationally.

At Washington, Sarkisian inherited a program in 2009 that had won just 12 games during the previous 5 seasons, including going winless the year before he took over. Despite that challenge, he guided the Huskies to bowl games his last 4 seasons (Alamo, Holiday, Las Vegas, Fight Hunger). His 8 victories in 2013 were the most at UW since 2000.

During his time in Seattle, his teams posted 8 wins over AP Top 25 teams, including twice over the Trojans (No. 3 USC and No. 19 California in 2009, No. 18 USC, No. 18 Nebraska and No. 24 Oregon State in 2010, No. 7 Oregon State and No. 8 Stanford in 2012 and No. 19 Boise State in 2013). He won 4 of his 5 Apple Cup games against in-state rival Washington State. He produced a 1,000-yard rusher each year. His overall Washington record was 34-29.

UW's school record-setting 2013 Washington offense was in the national Top 20 in total offense, rushing offense, pass efficiency offense and scoring offense, while the defense was in the Pac-12's Top 6 in every category. The 2013 Husky squad featured Doak Walker Award finalist tailback Bishop Sankey (No. 4 nationally in rushing), quarterback Keith Price (UW's recordholder in career TD passes, passing efficiency and completion percentage), 2013 Mackey Award-winning tight end Austin Seferian-Jenkins and safety Sean Parker (11 career interceptions).

Among the UW players Sarkisian coached were 9 NFL draftees, including quarterback Jake Locker, cornerback Desmond Trufant, linebackers Donald Butler and All-American Mason Foster, defensive end Daniel Te'o-Nesheim and tailback Bishop Sankey, plus All-Pac-12 tailback Chris Polk.

At USC, Sarkisian coached Heisman Trophy-winning quarterbacks Carson Palmer and Matt Leinart, along with NFL signalcallers Mark Sanchez, John David Booty and Matt Cassel. The Trojans went 23-3 when he was the offensive coordinator.

Sarkisian originally joined the USC staff as an offensive assistant in January of 2001. Then, after going to San Diego State briefly as the quarterbacks coach in January of 2002, he returned to USC in March of 2002 to handle the quarterbacks fulltime for 2 seasons (2002-03).

In 2002, Palmer won the Heisman and Uinitas Award en route to setting the Pac-10 career records for passing yards and total offense (he was the No. 1 pick in the 2003 NFL draft), plus he was an All-American first teamer.

In 2003, Leinart was an All-American first teamer and was the Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year (he finished sixth in the Heisman voting) while setting Pac-10 season records for TD passes (35) and consecutive passes without an interception (212). He also had the highest passing efficiency rating of any USC quarterback (163.2). USC won its first national championship since 1978.

Sarkisian spent the 2004 season as the quarterbacks coach with the Oakland Raiders. His quarterbacks passed for more than 4,000 yards in 2004 as Oakland ranked eighth in passing in the NFL.

He returned to the Trojan staff in February of 2005 as the assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach for 4 seasons (2005-08). He added the offensive coordinator role in 2007 and 2008.

In 2005, Leinart won the Johnny Unitas Golden Arm Award, finished third in the Heisman voting, was a finalist for the Davey O'Brien, Maxwell and Walter Camp Awards and was an All-American first teamer. He set 16 USC records (11 were Pac-10 marks and 2 were NCAA records). He was the 10th pick of the 2006 NFL draft. USC's 4,157 passing yards in 2005 was a school record and the Trojans were fifth nationally in passing (319.8).

In 2006, Booty made the All-Pac-10 first team as he led the league in passing efficiency and total offense. He was a fifth round pick in the 2008 NFL draft.

In 2008, Sanchez made the All-Pac-10 first team while leading the conference in passing efficiency and total offense. He then was the fifth pick of the 2009 NFL draft. USC was in the national Top 20 in total offense, scoring offense and rushing offense.

While Sarkisian was at USC, the Trojans played in 5 Rose Bowls—2004, 2006 (BCS Championship Game), 2007, 2008 and 2009—as well as the 2003 Orange Bowl and 2001 Las Vegas Bowl.

Sarkisian spent the 2000 season as the quarterbacks coach at El Camino Junior College in Torrance (Calif.). His quarterback, Robert Hodge, earned All-American honors. El Camino played in the CHIPs For Kids Bowl.

Sarkisian starred at the quarterback position at the prep, collegiate and pro levels. He was with the Saskatchewan Roughriders of the Canadian Football League for 3 seasons (1997-99). He started in 1999 and threw 16 touchdowns.

He had a record-setting 2-year (1995-96) career at BYU, where he was coached by former USC assistant Norm Chow. He completed 549-of-824 passes (66.6%) for 7,755 yards and 55 TDs in his career. His 162.0 career passing efficiency rating was third on the all-time NCAA list. As a senior in 1996, he led the nation in passing efficiency (173.6, then the fourth best mark ever) as the Western Athletic Conference champion Cougars went 14-1 and won the 1997 Cotton Bowl. He was the WAC Offensive Player of the Year in 1996, won All-American second team honors and played in the East-West Shrine Game and Hula Bowl. As a 1995 junior, he made the All-WAC team and led BYU to the WAC title. Against Fresno State that season, he set an NCAA game completion percentage record when he hit 31-of-34 passes (91.2%).

He came to BYU from El Camino Junior College, where he starred for 2 seasons (1993-94). He was a J.C. All-American first teamer as a 1994 sophomore and won All-Mission Conference honors in 1993 as a freshman. He also played baseball (shortstop) at El Camino in 1993.

He actually began his college career at USC, spending the fall of 1992 on the Trojan baseball team before transferring to El Camino.

He was a standout football and baseball player at West Torrance (Calif.) High.

He earned his bachelor's degree in sociology from BYU in 1997 after getting his associate's degree in general studies from El Camino in 1994.

He was born March 8, 1974. He and his wife, Stephanie, have 2 daughters, Ashley, 12, and Taylor, 6, and a son, Brady, 9.

USC ASSISTANT FOOTBALL COACHES BIOGRAPHIES

BOB CONNELLY

Offensive Line Run Game Coordinator

Bob Connelly, who has 20 years of experience coaching offensive lines at such programs as Alabama, a trio of Pac-12 schools and most recently Oklahoma State, was named USC's offensive line coach and run game coordinator in February of 2015.

Connelly, 44, spent the 2014 season handling the offensive line at Oklahoma State, which won the Cactus Bowl.

His previous collegiate stop was as the offensive line coach and associate head coach at Arizona State in 2012. His young line helped the Sun Devils rank in the national Top 25 in rushing offense, total offense and scoring offense. ASU won the 2012 Fight Hunger Bowl.

He coached the offensive line at Gilbert (Ariz.) High in 2013.

Connelly spent 4 seasons (2008-11) as the offensive line coach, co-offensive coordinator and associate head coach at UTEP. The Miners twice (2008 and 2009) averaged more than 400 yards of total offense and in 2009 ranked in the national Top 20 in total offense and passing offense. His line blocked for running back Donald Buckram, who set the school season rushing record in 2009. UTEP played in the 2010 New Mexico Bowl.

He was UCLA's offensive line coach in 2007, as the Bruins appeared in the Las Vegas Bowl.

Before that, Connelly spent 4 years (2003-06) as Alabama's offensive line coach. The Crimson Tide's rushing offense was in the national Top 20 in 2004 (tops in the Southeastern Conference). He was named one of the nation's Top 25 recruiters in 2005 by Rivals.com. Among the players he coached at Alabama who went on to play in the NFL were tackles Andre Smith, who became a unanimous All-American, won the Outland Trophy in 2008 and was a first round draft pick by the Cincinnati Bengals, and Wesley Britt, guards Evan Mathis, who was a 2-time All-Pro in the NFL, and Justin Smiley, and center-guard Antoine Caldwell, who became a consensus All-American. Alabama, which was 10-2 in 2005, played in the 2004 Music City Bowl, 2006 Cotton Bowl and 2006 Independence Bowl.

Prior to his Alabama stint, Connelly was the offensive line coach at Washington State for 2 years (2001-02). WSU was in the national Top 25 in scoring offense, total offense and passing offense both years and won 10 games each season. The 2002 Cougar squad won a share of the Pac-10 title and played in the 2003 Rose Bowl (WSU also won the 2001 Sun Bowl).

Connelly began his coaching career in 1995 at his alma mater, Texas A&M-Commerce, working as a graduate assistant with the offensive line and tight ends.

He then spent 2 seasons (1996-97) at Cisco Junior College, again coaching the offensive line and tight ends. In 1998, he was a graduate assistant coach at Texas A&M, which played in the Sugar Bowl, and among the offensive linemen he worked with were future NFL guards Rex Tucker, Cameron Spikes and Seth McKinney. He was the offensive line and tight ends coach at Cal State Northridge in 1999, then handled the offensive line at San Jose State in 2000 (the Spartans ran for 29 touchdowns and allowed just 11 sacks).

Connelly was an All-Conference offensive guard as a junior and senior at Texas A&M-Commerce in 1992 and 1993 (known then as East Texas State). He was the school's male athlete of the year as a senior. He also was a 3-time Academic All-Conference pick.

He received his bachelor's degree in kinesiology and sports studies from Texas A&M-Commerce in 1994 and then a master's degree in health, physical education and recreation from there in 1995.

He prepped at Newman-Smith High in Carrollton (Tex.).

He was born on Feb. 7, 1971. He and his wife, Racquel, have 2 daughters, Taylor and Paige.

CLAY HELTON

Offensive Coordinator Quarterbacks

Clay Helton is in his sixth year (2010-15) at USC as the quarterbacks coach. He added the passing game coordinator role in 2012 and became the offensive coordinator in 2013. He joined the USC staff in February of 2010 after spending 10 seasons as an assistant at Memphis.

In 2014, quarterback Cody Kessler had the most efficient passing season in USC history (69.7%, 39 TDs, 5 interceptions) while setting USC season records for completions (315), completion percentage (69.7), passing efficiency (167.1) and interception rate (1.11) and tying USC season marks for TD passes (39) and 300-yard passing games (7). He also threw a school record 7 TD passes against Colorado and a Notre Dame opponents record 6 TDs against the Irish. USC's offense ranked in the national Top 25 in passing efficiency, passing offense, third down conversions and scoring offense in 2014. USC played in the 2014 Holiday Bowl.

In 2013, he served as USC's interim head coach in its victory over Fresno State in the Las Vegas Bowl. The Trojan offense was in the national Top 25 in red zone scoring.

In 2012, quarterback Matt Barkley won the Wuerffel Trophy and was a finalist for the Manning Award, Unitas Golden Arm Award, Senior CLASS Award and ARA Sportsmanship Award as he became the Pac-12 career recordholder for passing yards (12,327), completions (1,001), touchdowns (116) and total offense (12,214). He also was a 2012 National Football Foundation National Scholar-Athlete. He was a fourth round pick in the 2013 NFL draft. USC played in the 2012 Sun Bowl.

In 2011, Barkley was a Manning Award and Wuerffel Trophy finalist as he set the Pac-12 season record for TD passes (39) and the USC season mark for pass completion percentage (69.1%), as well as school game standards for completions (35), pass yardage (468), passing TDs (6) and total offense (470). He was eighth nationally in passing efficiency and 16th in total offense. He finished sixth in the Heisman Trophy voting.

Helton, 42, began his 10-year (2000-09) Memphis career as the running backs coach for 3 seasons, then coached the Tigers' receivers for the next 4 seasons before becoming the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach the final 3 years. He served as Memphis' interim head coach for several months in early 2006 when head coach Tommie West had off-season heart surgery.

Among the Tigers' running backs he tutored was school rushing/scoring/all-purpose running recordholder DeAngelo Williams, who went on to finish seventh in the Heisman Trophy voting in 2005 and be an NFL first round selection.

As the receivers coach, he produced a pair of Conference USA All-Freshman picks in Maurice Jones (2005) and Duke Calhoun (2006), as well as the school's No. 4 all-time receptions leader in Ryan Scott. In 2003, Memphis set school season records for receptions and receiving yardage.

As the Tigers' offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, the 2007 and 2008 offenses were among the top 6 in school history in total yards and points. Both squads were ranked in the top 26 nationally in total offense. Quarterback Martin Hankins became Memphis' No. 2 career passer and set single season records for completions, passing yards and touchdown passes in 2007. In 2009, Curtis Steele had his second consecutive season with 1,000 rushing yards, Calhoun became the school's all-time leading receiver and Carlos Singleton set the career mark for receiving touchdowns.

Memphis played in 5 bowls during Helton's time: the 2003 and 2007 New Orleans Bowls, 2004 GMAC Bowl, 2005 Motor City Bowl and 2008 St. Petersburg Bowl.

Helton was hired as the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Arkansas State after the 2009 season, but was there just 2 months before coming to USC.

Before Memphis, he was the running backs coach at Houston, his alma mater, for 3 seasons (1997-99), working under his father, head coach Kim Helton.

He began his coaching career at Duke, serving as a graduate assistant in 1995 and then the running backs coach in 1996.

He played quarterback at Houston in 1993 and 1994, playing for his father both seasons and captaining the Cougars as a 1994 senior. In 1993, he completed 1-of-3 passes in late duty in Houston's 49-7 loss to USC in the Coliseum.

He spent 1991 and 1992 at Auburn, where he earned 1992 SEC All-Academic honors. He redshirted there in 1990.

He earned his bachelor's degree in mathematics and interdisciplinary science from Houston in 1994.

He prepped at Clements High in Sugar Land (Tex.).

He was born on June 24, 1972. He and his wife, Angela, have 3 children: sons Reid, 17, and Turner, 11, and daughter Aubrey, 15. Besides being Houston's head coach from 1993 to 1999, his father, Kim, was an assistant in college (Florida, Miami and Alabama Birmingham), the NFL (Tampa Bay Buccaneers, Houston Oilers, Los Angeles Raiders, Washington Redskins) and the CFL (Toronto Argonauts) following his playing career at Florida. His brother, Tyson, is the offensive coordinator at Western Kentucky after assistant coaching stops at Cincinnati, Alabama Birmingham, Memphis and Hawaii and playing at Houston.

KEITH HEYWARD

Defensive Backs Pass Game Coordinator Defense

Keith Heyward is in his second year (2014-15) at USC as the defensive backs coach and pass game coordinator. He joined the USC staff in December of 2013.

In 2014, safety-outside linebacker Su'a Cravens made Sophomore All-American first team and All-Pac-12 first team, while cornerback-wide receiver-returner Adoree' Jackson was a Freshman All-American first teamer. USC played in the 2014 Holiday Bowl.

He was Washington's secondary coach the previous 2 seasons (2012-13). UW's pass defense in 2012 ranked 23rd nationally. He coached safety Sean Parker, who had 11 career interceptions. The Huskies played in the 2012 Las Vegas Bowl and 2013 Fight Hunger Bowl (he did not coach in the Fight Hunger Bowl).

Before Washington, he was the secondary coach for 4 seasons (2008-11) at Oregon State, his alma mater. He coached such future NFL players Brandon Hughes, Keenan Lewis, Brandon Hardin, Al Afalava, James Dockery and Suaesi Tuimaunei. The Beavers played in the 2008 Sun Bowl and 2009 Las Vegas Bowl.

Before that, he was the linebackers coach at Cal Poly San Luis Obispo in 2007 after serving as a graduate assistant at Oregon State for 2 seasons (2005-06), working with the cornerbacks the first season and the next with the defensive line when the Beavers played in the Sun Bowl.

Heyward, 36, was a 4-year (1997-2000) letterwinning cornerback for the Beavers, earning All-Pac-10 honorable mention as a senior when he played in the 2 bowls, including the 2001 Fiesta Bowl, and the all-star Hula Bowl. He started 35 consecutive games.

He earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Oregon State in 2002.

He played professionally for the BC Lions in the CFL (2001), the Scottish Claymores in NFL Europe (2002) and the L.A. Avengers in the Arena League (2004).

He prepped at Taft High in Woodland Hills (Calif.).

He and his wife, Cameo, have a daughter, Kendyl, 1.

TEE MARTIN
Wide Receivers
Pass Game Coordinator

Tee Martin, the quarterback for Tennessee's 1998 national championship team who then played in the NFL, is in his fourth year (2012-15) at USC as the wide receivers coach. He added the pass game coordinator duties in 2014. He joined the USC staff in February of 2012.

In 2015, he was named among the nation's Top 10 recruiters by Sports Illustrated and Sporting News, as well as the Pac-12 Recruiter of the Year by Rivals.com.

In 2014, wide receiver Nelson Agholor made All-American first teamer and All-Pac-12 first team while catching 104 passes (third most in USC history), while wide receiver Juju Smith was a Freshman All-American first teamer. USC was 15th nationally in passing offense. He was named the 2014 Scout.com Pac-12 Recruiter of the Year. USC played in the 2014 Holiday Bowl.

In 2013, wide receiver Marqise Lee became USC's career receiving yardage leader and was an NFL second round pick. USC played in the 2013 Las Vegas Bowl.

In 2012, Lee won the Biletnikoff Award and was an All-American first teamer, plus he was a finalist for the Walter Camp Player of the Year Award and Hornung Award and was the Pac-12 Offensive Player of the Year as he set Pac-12 season records for receptions (112) and receiving yards (1,680) while leading the Pac-12 in receptions, receiving yards, all-purpose yards and kickoff returns. Wide receiver Robert Woods was a second round pick in the 2013 NFL draft. USC played in the 2012 Sun Bowl.

Martin, 36, spent the previous 2 years (2010-11) as the wide receivers coach at Kentucky. He also served as the passing game coordinator in 2011. In 2010, Wildcat wide receiver Randall Cobb was an All-American first teamer and NFL second round selection, while wide receiver Chris Matthews tied for the Southeastern Conference lead in touchdown catches. Kentucky played in the BBVA Compass Bowl that season.

Martin began his coaching career as the passing game coordinator at Morehouse College in 2006, when the Maroon Tigers had the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Conference's top-ranked rushing, passing and total offense.

He then was the passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Cobb High in Kennesaw (Ga.) in 2007, helping the Warriors to a 10-1 record in the Class AAAAA ranks, and the offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at North Atlanta (Ga.) High in 2008.

He spent 2009 as the quarterbacks coach at New Mexico.

Martin also was a coach for the Elite 11 Quarterback Camps (2007-08), Nike football training camps (2007-08) and the Nike Combine Tour (2008). He has mentored and evaluated more than 1,000 quarterbacks, including more than 30 Division I signees. He also created the "Dual Threat" Quarterback Camp and Academy in Atlanta in 2008.

In 2007 and 2008, he also was a college football analyst for the Comcast Sports Southeast's twice-weekly show, "Talking Football," and he did a weekly radio show about college football, "Hot Tee and Touchdowns," on the ESPN affiliate in Atlanta, 680 AM The Fan.

After prepping at Williamson High in Mobile (Ala.), he was a 4-year (1996-99) letterman at Tennessee. After serving as Peyton Manning's backup his first 2 years, he led the Volunteers to a 13-0 record in 1998, capped by the national championship following a Fiesta Bowl win over Florida State. He led Tennessee to another trip to the Fiesta Bowl in 1999 and was named All-SEC first team. He set NCAA game (since-tied 23 versus South Carolina) and season (since-broken 24) records for consecutive completions in 1998.

He was selected by Pittsburgh in the fifth round of the 2000 NFL Draft, beginning a 6-year pro career. After 2 seasons (2000-01) with the Steelers (Pittsburgh won the 2001 AFC Central Division title), he went to NFL Europe in 2002, when he led the Rhein Fire to a league-best 7-3 record and a berth in the World Bowl. He returned to the NFL with the Oakland Raiders in 2003, then moved to the Canadian Football League and spent the 2004 and 2005 seasons with the Winnipeg Blue Bombers.

He received his bachelor's degree in sports management in 2004 from the U.S. Sports Academy (through Tennessee).

He was born on July 25, 1978. His real first name is Tamaurice. He and his wife, Toya, have 2 sons, Kaden, 10, and Cannon, 2, and 14-year-old twins, daughter A'Yadra and son Amari. His wife is a recording artist with hit singles "I Do!" (2001) and "No Matta What (Party All Night)" (2002).

JOHNNY NANSEN
Assistant Head Coach
Running Backs
Special Teams Coordinator

Johnny Nansen is in his second year (2014-15) at USC as the assistant head coach, running backs coach and special teams coordinator. He joined the USC staff in December of 2013.

In 2014, tailback Javorius Allen made All-Pac-12 first team while rushing for 1,489 yards (the most by a Trojan since 2005). USC's special teams returned 2 punts and 2 kickoffs for touchdowns. USC played in the 2014 Holiday Bowl.

He was at Washington the previous 5 seasons (2009-13) in a variety of roles. He was the special teams coordinator all 5 years and recruiting coordinator the first 4 years. He doubled as the defensive line coach the first 3 seasons and as the running backs coach in 2013. He also was the assistant head coach the past 2 seasons.

In 2013, the Huskies were in the national Top 20 in rushing offense, as Doak Walker Award finalist and NFL second round pick Bishop Sankey was among the nation's rushing leaders. In 2011, UW ranked No. 7 in the nation in net punting and No. 21 in punt return defense. He mentored NFL draft pick Alameda Ta'amu on the defensive line. In 2010, his special teams featured school record-setting punter Kiel Rasp. In 2009, Nansen coached UW defensive end Daniel Te'o-Nesheim, an NFL draftee who finished his career with a school-record 30 sacks. The Huskies played in the 2010 Holiday Bowl, 2011 Alamo Bowl, 2012 Las Vegas Bowl and 2013 Fight Hunger Bowl (he did not coach in the Fight Hunger Bowl).

The 41-year-old Nansen came to UW after having spent 5 seasons (2004-08) at Idaho, where he worked with the linebackers the first 3 years, defensive line the final 2 years and special teams each season.

He began his coaching career as the defensive coordinator at Cabrillo High in Long Beach (Calif.) in 1998. He then was a graduate assistant at Louisville in 1999, working with the defensive line as the Cardinals earned a berth in the Humanitarian Bowl, before spending the 2000 season at Montana State as the running backs coach and 3 years (2001-03) at Idaho State, the first 2 years as the cornerbacks coach (the Bengals won the Big Sky title in 2002) and the last as the secondary coach.

Nansen was a 3-year (1994-96) letterman linebacker at Washington State. The Cougars played in the 1994 Alamo Bowl. He received his bachelor's degree in business administration there in 1997.

He was a standout quarterback at Long Beach (Calif.) Jordan High.

He was born on Feb. 28, 1974. He and his wife, Hale, have 2 daughters, Makena Lei, 8, and Kealie Lei, 6, and a son, Johnny Jr., 2.

His nephew is Viane Talamaivao and his cousin is Juju Smith, both current Trojans.

PETER SIRMON
Associate Head Coach Defense
Linebackers
Recruiting Coordinator

Peter Sirmon is in his second year (2014-15) at USC as the associate head coach defense, linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator. He joined the USC staff in December of 2013.

USC's initial 2014 recruiting class ranked among the nation's Top 10 (tops in the Pac-12) and the 2015 class was No. 1 nationally. USC played in the 2014 Holiday Bowl.

He was Washington's linebackers coach the previous 2 years (2012-13), as well as its recruiting coordinator in 2013. The Huskies played in the 2012 Las Vegas Bowl and 2013 Fight Hunger Bowl (he did not coach in the Fight Hunger Bowl).

Sirmon, 38, spent the 2011 season coaching the linebackers at Tennessee after serving as the Volunteer's graduate assistant in 2010, working with the safeties as the team earned a berth in the Music City Bowl.

He was a graduate assistant at Oregon, his alma mater, in 2009, helping the Ducks to the Pac-12 championship and a Rose Bowl berth.

In 2008, he coached linebackers at Central Washington, helping lead the Wildcats to a trip to the NCAA Division II playoffs.

He was a linebacker with the Tennessee Titans for 7 seasons (2000-06). The Titans won 2 division championships and appeared in the NFL playoffs 3 times during his tenure.

He started at linebacker for 4 seasons (1996-99) at Oregon, leading the team in tackles in 1997 and 1999 and earning All-Pac-10 first team honors as a senior. He played in 3 bowl games (1997 Las Vegas, 1998 Aloha, 1999 Sun), plus the Senior Bowl.

He received his bachelor's degree in political science from Oregon in 1999.

He prepped at Walla Walla (Wash.) High.

He was born on Feb. 18, 1977. He and his wife, Lindsay, have 4 children: son Jackson, 13, and daughters Presley, 12, Savanna, 10, and Sadie, 7.

MARQUES TUIASOSOPO

Associate Head Coach Offense Tight Ends

Marques Tuiaosopo, who played quarterback at Washington and in the NFL, is in his second year (2014-15) at USC as the associate head coach offense and tight ends coach. He joined the USC staff in December of 2013.

In 2015, he was named Pac-12 Recruiter of the Year by Scout.com. USC played in the 2014 Holiday Bowl.

He spent 2013 as Washington's quarterbacks coach. He served as UW's interim head coach in the 2013 Fight Hunger Bowl (a 31-16 UW victory) after Husky head coach Steve Sarkisian became USC's head coach.

Before that, Tuiaosopo was the tight ends coach at UCLA in 2012 after having served as an intern in the Bruins' football office in 2011. He was elevated to UCLA's fulltime quarterbacks coach for the 2011 Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl. UCLA played in the 2012 Holiday Bowl.

He was an assistant strength coach at Washington in 2009 and 2010. The Huskies played in the 2010 Holiday Bowl.

Tuiaosopo, 35, was the 2000 Pac-10 Offensive Player of the Year and 2001 Rose Bowl MVP as a quarterback at Washington, where he lettered 4 seasons (1997-2000). He set UW's career total offense record as he passed for 5,879 yards and 33 touchdowns while rushing for 1,495 yards with 21 TDs. In a victory over Stanford in 1999, he became the first NCAA Division I player to pass for 300 yards and rush for 200 yards in a game (he threw for 302 and ran for 207). In the 1997 Oregon game, he became the first true freshman to start at quarterback for Washington. He was the Huskies' team captain in 1999 and 2000. Washington also played in the 1997 Aloha Bowl, 1998 Oahu Bowl and 1999 Holiday Bowl.

Tuiaosopo earned his bachelor's degree in business from Washington in 2001.

A second round NFL draft pick by the Oakland Raiders in 2001, he played quarterback for the Raiders for 7 seasons (2001-06, 2008) and the New York Jets in 2007.

He starred in football and baseball at Woodinville (Wash.) High. He was drafted by the Minnesota Twins out of high school, but chose to play collegiate football.

Three of Tuiaosopo's 4 siblings were varsity athletes at Washington. His sister, Leslie, was an All-Pac-10 volleyball player at Washington (1995-98) and is now the Huskies' associate head coach. His brother, Zach, played fullback and linebacker at UW (2001-04), while his sister, Ashley, played softball at UW (2008-11). Another brother, Matt, signed a letter of intent to play quarterback for UW, but instead signed a professional baseball contract out of high school and has played in the majors with the Seattle Mariners (2008-10) and Detroit Tigers (2013).

He has football running throughout his immediate and extended family. His father, Manu, played defensive line at UCLA (1975-78) and then in the NFL with the Seattle Seahawks (1979-83) and San Francisco 49ers (1984-86). Cousin John Tautolo played at UCLA (1977-80) and then with the New York Giants (1982-83) and Los Angeles Raiders (1987) as a guard, while cousin Terry Tautolo played at UCLA (1974-75) and with the Philadelphia Eagles (1976-79), San Francisco 49ers (1980-81), Detroit Lions (1981-82, 1984) and Miami Dolphins (1983) as a linebacker. His second cousins are former USC offensive guard Titus Tuiaosopo (1990-92), Navy Tuiaosopo, who played at Utah State (1983-86) and then with the Los Angeles Rams (1987), and Mike Tuiaosopo, who played at Pacific Lutheran, then was an assistant coach at Pacific (1991), Utah State (1996-99), Nevada (2000-02), Utah (2003), Arizona (2004-10), Colorado (2011-12) and now at UCLA.

He was born on March 22, 1979. He and his wife Lisa, a former volleyball player at North Carolina, have two sons, Brayden, 5, and Bryce, 3, and a daughter, Kylie, 1.

JUSTIN WILCOX

Defensive Coordinator

Wilcox, who has been a defensive coordinator at 4 schools, is in his second year (2014-15) at USC as the defensive coordinator. He joined the USC staff in December of 2013.

In 2014, USC's defense was in the nation's Top 20 in turnover margin, red zone defense and third down conversion defense. USC played in the 2014 Holiday Bowl.

He served as Washington's defensive coordinator the previous 2 seasons (2012-13). In 2012, the Huskies were in the national Top 40 in total defense, scoring defense and pass defense after finishing the previous year ranked lower than 105th in each category. UW's scoring defense was in the national Top 35 in 2013, while its pass efficiency defense improved 60 spots to 27th nationally in 2012 and then was 11th in 2013 (first in the Pac-12). Its 41 pass sacks in 2013 are second most nationally. The Huskies played in the 2012 Las Vegas Bowl and 2013 Fight Hunger Bowl.

Before that, Wilcox was Tennessee's defensive coordinator for 2 years (2010-11). The Volunteers were 28th nationally in total defense (340.5) in 2011. In 2010, his defense limited foes to 14 or fewer points in 4 November games. Tennessee played in the 2010 Music City Bowl.

He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Boise State in 2001 and 2002. BSU was in the 2002 Humanitarian Bowl.

He then was the linebackers coach at California for 3 seasons (2003-05) as the Golden Bears went 26-12 and played in 3 bowls in that span (2003 Insight Bowl, 2004 Holiday Bowl, 2005 Las Vegas Bowl).

He returned to Boise State as defensive coordinator for 4 seasons (2006-09), helping the Broncos to a 49-4 record while leading the Western Athletic Conference in defense each year. In 2006, BSU was eighth nationally in rushing defense (89.1) as the team went 13-0. In 2008, BSU was third nationally in scoring defense (12.6) as 8 of its 13 opponents scored just 10 points or less. In 2009, BSU was 14th nationally in total defense (300.2) and scoring defense (17.1) and third in turnover margin (+1.5). The Broncos played in the 2007 Fiesta Bowl, 2007 Hawaii Bowl, 2008 Poinsettia Bowl and 2010 Fiesta Bowl.

Wilcox, 38, played safety and cornerback at Oregon (1996-99) as the Ducks played in 3 bowl games (1997 Las Vegas Bowl, 1998 Aloha Classic, 1999 Sun Bowl). In 1999, he made the All-Pac-10 second team and Pac-10 All-Academic first team.

He earned his bachelor's degree in anthropology from Oregon in 1999.

He prepped at Junction City (Ore.) High, leading the team to the state 3A title as a junior quarterback in 1993.

He was born Nov. 12, 1976. He is single. His father, Dave Wilcox, was a Pro Football Hall of Fame linebacker with the San Francisco 49ers (1964-74). Justin's father (1962-63), as well as his uncle, John (a tackle, 1958-59), and his brother, Josh (a tight end, 1993-96), all played at Oregon. John then played with the Philadelphia Eagles (1960) and Josh with the New Orleans Saints (1998-99).

CHRIS WILSON

Defensive Line

Chris Wilson, whose 22-year collegiate coaching career has included handling the defensive line at Oklahoma, Colorado, Mississippi State and Georgia, is in his second year (2014-15) at USC as the defensive line coach. He joined the USC staff in January of 2014.

In 2014, defensive end Leonard Williams made All-American first team and All-Pac-12 first team. USC played in the 2014 Holiday Bowl.

Wilson, 46, spent 2013 as Georgia's defensive line coach. The Bulldogs, who played in the 2014 Gator Bowl, were 28th nationally in sacks in 2014.

He spent the previous 3 seasons (2010-12) at Mississippi State handling the defensive line. He also was the Bulldogs' co-defensive coordinator in 2010 before becoming defensive coordinator the final 2 years. In 2010, MSU was 15th nationally in rushing defense and 17th in tackles for a loss. The Bulldogs improved in 7 defensive statistical categories in 2011, including ranking 16th nationally in scoring defense (19.7), tied for eighth in fumble recoveries and tied for 14th in interceptions. Defensive lineman Fletcher Cox was a 2011 All-American and an NFL first round draft pick. MSU played in the 2011 and 2013 Gator Bowls and 2011 Music City Bowl.

Wilson came to Mississippi State after 5 seasons (2005-09) coaching the defensive ends at Oklahoma, his alma mater. He also was the special teams coordinator the final 3 years there. The Sooners led the Big 12 in sacks in 2007 and then in 2009 they were eighth nationally in rushing defense and total defense and seventh in scoring defense. Oklahoma played in the 2005 Holiday Bowl, 2007 and 2008 Fiesta Bowls, 2009 BCS Championship Game and 2009 Sun Bowl.

Before that, he was Colorado's defensive line coach for 5 years (2000-04). The Buffaloes won 3 Big 12 North titles during that time and were 15th nationally in sacks in 2004. Colorado played in the 2002 Fiesta Bowl, 2002 Alamo Bowl and 2004 Houston Bowl.

He was the defensive line coach at Illinois State for 2 seasons (1998-99), with the Redbirds' winning the Gateway Conference title and advancing to the NCAA Division I-AA semifinals in 1999. He then handled the same duty in the spring of 2000 at Army before going to Colorado.

He began his coaching career in 1993 as a graduate assistant at Indiana State, then became the Sycamores' linebackers coach in 1994. He handled the outside linebackers at Northern Illinois in 1995, then was the defensive line coach at Northeastern Oklahoma A&M Junior College in 1996 before returning to Indiana State in 1997 as the outside linebackers coach and recruiting coordinator.

He had NFL minority internships with the Dallas Cowboys (1995), Arizona Cardinals (1997) and Miami Dolphins (1998).

He was a 4-year (1988-91) letterman linebacker at Oklahoma, recording 303 career tackles. He twice was named team captain. He was a member of Sooners' squads that played in the 1989 Citrus Bowl and 1991 Gator Bowl. He was a 12th round NFL Draft pick by the Chicago Bears in 1992.

He earned his bachelor's degree in communications from Oklahoma in 1992.

He starred in football and track at Richardson (Tex.) High.

He was born on Jan. 8, 1969. He and his wife, Tina, have a son, Caleb, 17, and a daughter, Colby, 13.

JARON FAIRMAN

Offensive Assistant

Jaron Fairman is in his third season (2013-15) as a graduate assistant at USC. He is working with the offense in 2014.

USC's offense ranked in the national Top 25 in passing efficiency, passing offense, third down conversions and scoring offense in 2014.

In 2013 while working with the special teams, fullback Soma Vainuku made the All-Pac-12 first team as a special teams player and Nelson Agholor was an All-American second team and All-Pac-12 second team pick as a punt returner. USC blocked 6 kicks, returned 3 punts for TDs in a game to tie an NCAA record and allowed no punt return yards in 8 games.

USC played in the 2013 Las Vegas Bowl and the 2014 Holiday Bowl.

Fairman, 30, spent the 2012 season as an assistant at Crespi High in Encino (Calif.), handling the wide receivers and working with the special teams.

In 2011, he was the wide receivers coach and special teams assistant at Western State College (now Western State Colorado University).

He spent the previous 3 seasons (2008-10) as the wide receivers coach and special teams assistant at Nichols College. He also served as Nichols' offensive coordinator in 2010 after being the passing game coordinator in 2009.

He was a wide receiver and special teams performer for 4 seasons (2003-06) at Fresno State (he redshirted in 2002), where he caught 46 passes for 572 yards (12.4 avg.) with 6 TDs in his career. He was a team captain as a 2006 senior, catching 12 passes for 101 yards with a score in 3 contests before suffering season-ending torn knee ligaments. He added 26 receptions for 348 yards (13.4 avg.) with 2 TDs in 2005 (the Bulldogs nearly upset top-ranked USC in the Coliseum that year) and 8 catches for 123 yards (15.4 avg.) with 3 TDs in 2004. His 5-yard rushing touchdown against Portland State in 2003 came just hours after his father, who was in town to watch the game, had passed away. He twice was named to the Western Athletic Conference All-Academic team. The Bulldogs played in 4 bowls (2002 and 2003 Silicon Valley Football Classics, 2004 MPC Computers Bowl and 2005 AutoZone Liberty Bowl), winning the first 3.

He participated in the training camp for the Arena Football League's San Jose Sabercats.

He was an All-State wide receiver and defensive back at South Hills High in West Covina (Calif.).

He received his bachelor's degree in health sciences and public health from Fresno State in 2007. He is working on his master's degree in communication at USC.

Born on Nov. 12, 1984, he is single.

2014 GAME SUMMARIES

GAME 1 – August 30, Los Angeles Coliseum USC 52, Fresno State 13 Att: 76,037

Fresno State	0	7	6	0	—	13
USC	21	10	21	0	—	52

QB Cody Kessler threw 4 touchdowns and ran for another to help the Steve Sarkisian era get off on a winning note as No. 15 USC routed Fresno State, 52-13, in front of 76,037 fans in the Coliseum and a national FOX TV audience.

Sarkisian was the sixth consecutive Trojan head coach to win his debut, and it was the most points and largest victory margin in a Trojan coaching debut since Howard Jones in 1925 (a 74-0 win over Whittier). It was USC's 16th straight win in an opener. It was the first time since 1916-17 that USC faced an opponent in consecutive games, as Troy also beat the Bulldogs in the 2013 Las Vegas Bowl.

USC rolled up 701 yards of total offense (its most since getting 745 versus Washington State in 2005) while running off a Pac-12 and USC record 105 plays (10 shy of the NCAA record) and getting 37 first downs (its most since getting 40 in that 2005 WSU contest).

Kessler threw for a career-high 394 yards while completing 25-of-37 passes with the 4 TDs (all tying career bests). In the first half, he was 21-of-30 for 309 yards with 3 scores.

USC, which never punted, scored on its first 4 possessions to open a 24-0 lead. Kessler capped a 17-play, 90-yard opening drive with a 1-yard TD run, then he hit WR Nelson Agholor with scoring passes of 10 and 5 yards late in the opening quarter. PK Andre Heidari added a 27-yard field goal early in the second quarter before Fresno State got on the board with a 1-yard run by TB Marteze Waller, but USC countered with an 18-yard Kessler TD toss to freshman CB-WR Adoree' Jackson late in the half.

Fresno State scored on the opening drive of the second half on Waller's 2-yard run, but USC answered right back as TB Javorius Allen ended an 85-yard drive with a 9-yard TD run. USC scored on its next two possessions in the third quarter, first on a 22-yard Kessler pass to frosh TE Bryce Dixon (after ILB Anthony Sarao's interception) and then on an 11-yard run by FB Soma Vainuku to end the day's scoring.

Allen rushed for a game-best 133 yards on 22 carries and freshman WR-CB JuJu Smith had 4 catches for 123 yards (more than any USC first-year freshman has had in a season opener). Ten Trojans caught passes. Troy's 64 rushing attempts were its most since running 70 times at Arizona State in 1990 and its 21 rushing first downs were its most since getting 21 versus UCLA in 2005. USC converted 11-of-18 third downs (holding the ball 38:54) and limited FSU to 2-of-12.

The Bulldogs managed just 317 total yards and 17 first downs on 69 plays. The Trojans had 4 interceptions (by Sarao, S Gerald Bowman, DE Leonard Williams and ILB Michael Hutchings). ILB Hayes Pullard led USC with 8 tackles and Williams had 7 stops and 2 deflections to go with his pick.

USC, which suited just 57 recruited scholarship players, played 11 first-year freshmen and 2 transfers. OGS Toa Lobendahn and Damien Mama started, marking the first time in the post-World War II era that a pair of frosh started an opener on the offensive line (and just the second true freshman duo to ever start on the line). Jackson saw significant action on defense (1 tackle), offense (3 catches for 36 yards) and special teams (1 punt return for 10 yards).

For FSU, Waller ran for 97 yards on 16 tries, WR Josh Harper had 6 catches for 56 yards, and QBs Brian Burrell (11-of-19 for 92 yards) and Brandon Connette (7-of-17 for 68 yards with 3 picks) split time.

GAME 2 – September 6, Palo Alto, California USC 13, Stanford 10 Att: 50,814

USC	7	0	3	3	—	13
Stanford	0	10	0	0	—	10

For the second year in a row, PK Andre Heidari kicked a late field goal to upend Stanford, this time lifting No. 14 USC to a Pac-12 opening 13-10 victory at the No. 13 Cardinal before a sold-out crowd of 50,814 fans and a national ABC audience.

The win snapped Stanford's 17-game home winning streak.

Heidari, whose 47-yard field goal with 19 seconds to play beat Stanford in 2013, this time nailed a career-long 53-yarder (tied for the third longest in USC history) with 2:30 remaining to cap a 9-play, 58 yard drive and then the Trojans held off a late Cardinal drive as OLB J.R. Tavai sacked QB Kevin Hogan on the Trojan 25-yard line with 19 seconds remaining, forcing a fumble that OLB Scott Felix recovered to seal the win.

After the Cardinal missed a 49-yard field goal on the game's opening series, USC scored on its first possession, driving 68 yards in 12 plays as TB Justin Davis scored on a 1-yard run. But Stanford then shut down the Trojans on their next 5 drives into the third quarter and took a 10-7 lead into halftime on a 2-yard run by FB Patrick Skov and then a 33-yard field goal by PK Jordan Williamson on its next series. After Stanford missed another field goal (26 yards) on its first drive of the second half and then failed to convert on fourth-and-1 from the USC 3, Troy got back on the board with a 25-yard Heidari field goal late in the third quarter to tie the score.

Stanford held advantages in most of the statistics, getting more yards (413 to 291), plays (68 to 59), first downs (21 to 16) and possession time (33:47), but besides missing the 2 field goals the Cardinal lost 2 fumbles, was just 2-of-5 in the red zone, converted only 7-of-14 third downs and had 8 penalties.

TB Javorius Allen had a game-high 154 yards on 23 carries, WR Nelson Agholor had a career-best 9 catches for 91 yards and QB Cody Kessler was 15-of-22 for 135 yards. DE Leonard Williams, whose playing status was in question because of a sprained ankle, had 11 tackles with a sack, while ILB Anthony Sarao also had 11 stops and S Gerald Bowman added 10 tackles.

USC, which traveled just 52 recruited scholarship players, played the fourth quarter without ILB Hayes Pullard, who was ejected for targeting.

For Stanford, Hogan hit 22-of-30 passes for 285 yards, with 9 of those throws going to WR Ty Montgomery for 83 yards. RB Remoud Wright rushed for 60 yards on 11 tries.

GAME 3 – September 13, Chestnut Hill, Massachusetts

Boston College 37, USC 31

Att: 41,632

USC	10	7	0	14	—	31
Boston College	0	20	7	10	—	37

QB Tyler Murphy ran for 191 yards, including a 66-yard touchdown run late in the game, to help Boston College gain 452 yards on the ground with 5 rushing TDs while upsetting No. 9 USC, 37-31, in front of 41,632 fans in Alumni Stadium who stormed the field and a national ESPN audience.

It was BC's first win over a Top 10 team since 2004 (and the first while unranked since 2002) and its first win over USC in the 5-game series. It was the most rushing yards allowed by USC since Texas A&M had 486 in the 1977 Bluebonnet Bowl. The Eagles averaged 8.4 yards on their 54 rushing attempts (and 7.4 on their 68 total plays). Murphy averaged 13.1 yards on his 13 carries and he also completed 5-of-13 passes for 54 yards with an interception. BC had 506 total yards, but its 54 passing yards were the fewest allowed by USC since Notre Dame had 41 in 2008 and its 5 completions were the fewest against USC since Colorado had 2 in 2002.

Conversely, USC gained just 20 of its 337 total yards on the ground, its lowest rushing total since getting 1 yard against Utah in the 2001 Las Vegas Bowl, and Trojans were tackled for losses 16 times, including 5 sacks of QB Cody Kessler for minus 36 yards. Troy was just 2-of-11 on third downs and punted 10 times (its most since doing so 11 times at Kansas State in 2002).

USC built a 17-6 lead early in the second quarter, as Kessler hit WR George Farmer on an 8-yard scoring pass and PK Andre Heidari then nailed a 52-yard field goal late in the first quarter before BC RB Tyler Rouse ran for a 4-yard score to cap a 78-yard drive at the top of the second quarter, only to have USC counter quickly on Kessler's 51-yard TD pass to TB Javorius Allen.

Boston College then scored 24 unanswered points as USC's next 9 possessions all went 5 plays or less (with a quartet of 3-and-outs) and 8 resulted in punts. First, RB Jon Hilliman concluded a 75-yard drive with a 3-yard scoring run on the series after Allen's TD and then WR Sherman Alston took a reverse 54 yards for a touchdown just before halftime to help BC go up 20-17. Hilliman added a 1-yard scoring run midway through the third quarter and then PK Joey Launceford hit a 25-yard field goal midway through the fourth quarter as BC extended its lead to 30-17.

USC countered on its ensuing possession, driving 75 yards as Kessler found WR Nelson Agholor on a 10-yard TD pass. But BC answered 2 plays later with Murphy's 66-yard TD scamper with 3:30 to play. The Trojans came right back to score, with Kessler hitting WR Darreus Rogers on a 14-yard touchdown throw with 1:18 to go, but BC recovered the onside kick and ran out the clock.

Kessler completed 31-of-41 passes (both career bests) for 317 yards with the 4 TDs. Allen ran for 31 yards on 15 tries and also caught 9 passes for 118 yards, both career receiving highs. Agholor also had 9 receptions (tying a career high) for 64 yards and WR JuJu Smith had 6 grabs for 49 yards. S Gerald Bowman had a team-best 7 tackles and CB Chris Hawkins had an interception.

For BC, Hilliman (19 carries) and RB Myles Willis (9 carries) each finished with 89 yards. The Eagles were just 5-of-16 on third downs.

BC wore designs of red bandanas on their helmets, shoes and gloves in honor of late BC lacrosse player Welles Crowther, a Sept. 11 victim and hero.

GAME 4 – September 27, Los Angeles Coliseum

USC 35, Oregon State 10

Att: 74,521

Oregon State	7	3	0	0	—	10
USC	7	14	0	14	—	35

QB Cody Kessler threw a pair of touchdown passes, including a Hail Mary at the halftime gun, TB Justin Davis scored twice, S Su'a Cravens returned an interception for a TD and the Trojan defense help the Beaver offense without a TD as No. 18 USC—coming off a bye—posted a 35-10 bounceback victory over Oregon State in front of 74,521 fans in the Coliseum and a national ESPN audience.

It was USC's 23rd consecutive home victory over the Beavers, with the last L.A. loss coming in 1960. The win gave USC its first 2-0 Pac-12 start since 2007.

The game was tight in the first half until the half's final play. Cravens got the scoring going late in the first quarter with a 31-yard scoring interception return off a pass from QB Sean Mannion, Oregon State's career passing yardage leader. But OSU answered on the ensuing kickoff, which S Ryan Murphy returned 97 yards for a TD on his first career kick return. The Beavers went up 10-7 on PK Trevor Romaine's 38-yard field goal early in the second period, but USC responded on its next possession as Kessler hit Davis for a 16-yard scoring pass. OSU then marched to the USC 22 on the next series before CB Adoree' Jackson tipped a Mannion pass in the corner of the end zone to S Leon McQuay III, who intercepted it. That led to USC's march to midfield, where Kessler launched a 48-yard Hail Mary as time ran out in the half and WR Darreus Rogers outjumped a group of OSU defenders for the TD grab.

After a scoreless third quarter, USC used a pair of long scoring drives to put the game out of reach, first a 12-play, 87-yard drive that led to TB Javorius Allen's 17-yard TD run at the top of the fourth quarter and then an 88-yard drive that Davis capped with a 21-yard TD run late in the game.

USC had 461 total yards on 81 plays and 34:45 possession time with 26 first downs to Oregon State's 181 total yards (the fewest by a Trojan opponent since San Jose State's 121 in 2009) on 56 plays with 17 first downs. OSU, which converted only 1-of-10 third downs, had just 58 rushing yards to USC's 200. The Beavers managed just 35 total yards in the second half. OSU came into the game leading the nation in pass efficiency defense (holding opposing quarterbacks to 42.3% completions and not allowing a passing TD) and third down conversion defense (USC converted 42.1%, 8-of-19). Both teams were heavily penalized, USC 14 times for 124 yards and OSU 13 for 108.

Kessler completed 75% of his passes (24-of-32) for 261 yards with the 2 scores and no picks, while Allen led the Trojans in rushing (20 carries for 115 yards) and receptions (5 for 23 yards). Cravens had a team-best 6 tackles, including 2 for losses (with a sack).

For OSU, Mannion was held to 15-of-32 for 123 yards with 2 picks, his lowest yardage output as a starter, while RB Storm Woods gained 61 yards on 9 carries and WR Richard Mullaney had 5 catches for 78 yards.

USC's 2015 Athletic Hall of Fame class was introduced at halftime.

GAME 5 – October 4, Los Angeles Coliseum
Arizona State 38, USC 34
Att: 70,115

Arizona State	0	15	3	20	—	38
USC	7	10	3	14	—	34

QB Mike Bercovici threw a 46-yard Hail Mary touchdown pass to WR Jaalen Strong as time expired to help Arizona State overcome a 9-point deficit in the final 3 minutes and upset No. 16 USC, 38-34, on a hot (92 degrees) afternoon in the Coliseum in front 70,115 stunned fans and a national FOX audience.

It was only the second time in history that the Trojans lost a regulation game on a touchdown at the gun (the other was at Stanford in 2000) and the first time since 2010 that Troy fell in regulation with no time remaining (when it happened on field goals to Washington and Stanford in consecutive weeks). The win snapped ASU's 7-game losing streak in the Coliseum that dated to 1999.

USC, which had not surrendered a TD pass in its first 4 games and was allowing only 155.5 passing yards a contest, saw Bercovici—in his second start for injured QB Taylor Kelly—throw for 510 yards (the second most passing yards ever against USC; he was 27-of-45) and a USC opponent record 5 TDs, including 3 scores to Strong, who had game highs of 10 receptions for 202 yards. Arizona State ran just 68 plays to USC's 95, held the ball only 22:42 and converted just 3-of-12 third downs, but the Sun Devils had 541 total yards. In the fourth quarter alone, ASU had 233 total yards on 15 plays, including 239 passing. In the game's final 3:53, the Sun Devils threw 3 TD passes. However, ASU—which entered the game leading the Pac-12 in rushing offense (262.8)—was held to just 31 rushing yards overall. USC had 493 total yards, including 220 rushing, and converted 11-of-23 third downs.

WR Nelson Agholor opened the game's scoring midway into the first quarter with a 53-yard scoring punt return, his third career TD punt return to tie a USC record. But Bercovici found Strong on a 4-yard TD toss early in the second quarter to cap a 73-yard drive and then the duo connected for a 77-yard TD on the first play of ASU's next drive. But the Trojans scored twice late in the half, first on TB Javorius Allen's 1-yard run and then on PK Andre Heidari's 35-yard field goal to take a 17-15 lead into intermission.

ASU then got a 19-yard field goal from PK Alex Garoutte on its first series of the second half before USC countered with a 33-yard Heidari field goal late in the third quarter followed on its next possession with an 8-yard TD run by QB Cody Kessler at the top of the fourth quarter to build a 27-18 lead.

With 3:53 remaining, Bercovici hit TB D.J. Foster with a 21-yard scoring pass to cap a 10-play, 98-yard drive, but USC countered on Allen's 53-yard scamper with 3:02 to go to build a 34-25 edge. However, on ASU's next play from scrimmage, WR Cameron Smith hauled in a 73-yard TD pass from Bercovici with 2:43 to go. After USC went 3-and-out on its next possession, ASU took over with 23 seconds to go and took 4 plays to get the last-second game-winning Hail Mary.

Kessler completed 28-of-45 passes (a career high in attempts) for 273 yards (he had 5 passes dropped in the first half), while Agholor caught 9 passes for 85 yards and Allen ran for 143 yards on 29 carries and added 4 receptions for 86 yards. LB Hayes Pullard led USC with 9 tackles and S Gerald Bowman added 8 stops, while S Su'a Cravens had 3.5 tackles for a loss.

ASU S Jordan Simone had 20 tackles.

GAME 6 – October 11, Tucson, Arizona
USC 28, Arizona 26
Att: 56,754

USC	7	7	14	0	—	28
Arizona	6	0	7	13	—	26

TB Javorius Allen ran for a career-high 205 yards with 3 touchdowns as USC held off late-charging No. 10 Arizona to post a 28-26 road victory in front of a sold-out Tucson crowd of 56,754 and a national ESPN audience.

It was the eighth consecutive USC-Arizona game that was decided by a TD or less, and gave the Wildcats their first loss of 2014.

The game looked like it might end as dramatically as USC's contest the previous week against Arizona State, when the Trojans had a two-score fourth quarter lead only to see the Sun Devils win on a walk-off Hail Mary TD pass. But this time, good fortune shined on USC as the Wildcats nearly overcame a 15-point fourth quarter deficit, but PK Casey Skowron's 36-yard potential game-winning field goal sailed wide with 12 seconds to play. It was Skowron's third missed field goal in the game, as he was wide on a 48-yard try on Arizona's game-opening possession, then he had a 34-yarder blocked by DT Claude Pelon at the end of the first half (on the misses at the end of both halves, USC called a timeout to ice Skowron).

Trailing 28-20 with 3:27 to play, Arizona marched 80 yards in 15 plays, with TB Jared Baker scoring on a 1-yard run with 1:07 to play, but his potential game-tying 2-point conversion run was stuffed. Arizona, however, recovered the ensuing on-side kick, and quickly drove to USC's 19-yard line before Skowron's final miss.

The game's scoring began midway through the opening quarter when Skowron hit a 32-yard field goal, but USC responded on the next drive with a 34-yard TD run by Allen. UA countered with a 25-yard Skowron field goal late in the quarter. Allen then ran for a 48-yard TD midway through the second quarter. In the third quarter, USC extended its lead to 21-6 on a 21-yard TD pass from QB Cody Kessler to WR Nelson Agholor. Then, after USC lost a fumble deep in its territory, Baker scored on a 6-yard run, only to have USC answer on Allen's 1-yard scoring run late in the third quarter to build Troy's lead back to 15, 28-13. Arizona closed the gap to 28-20 early in the fourth quarter on QB Anu Solomon's 41-yard fourth down TD pass to Baker.

USC won despite Arizona running 32 more plays (101-69), including 72 passes, and getting 12 more first downs (34-22). The plays, passes and completions (43) were USC opponent records. Arizona had 472 total yards (102 under its average), including only 77 rushing (147 under its average), while USC had 424 total plays (6.1 yards per play), including 239 on the ground (its third straight 200-yard rushing performance). The Wildcats got into the red zone 7 times, but managed just 2 field goals and 2 touchdowns. UA was averaging 39.8 points a game. USC was penalized 13 times to Arizona's 4.

Allen's 205 yards came on 26 carries and gave him his fifth 100-yard outing of 2014 (and ninth of his career, all in the past 12 games). He also caught 4 passes for 28 yards. Kessler was 20-of-30 for 185 yards, but threw his first interception of 2014 (breaking a streak of 190 without a pick in 2014 and 195 dating to the previous season). Agholor had 7 receptions for 81 yards.

S Gerald Bowman and LB Hayes Pullard led USC with 9 tackles each and DE Leonard Williams had 8 stops (with 2 sacks) and forced a fumble. Because of injuries, the Trojans played much of the game with 2 true freshmen and a redshirt freshman in the secondary.

For UA, Solomon was 43-of-72 passing (both USC opponent marks) for 395 yards with a pick, WRs Austin Hill (70 yards), Cayleb Jones (67), DaVonte' Neal (65) and David Richards (61) each had 7 catches, and Baker ran for 43 yards on 12 carries and caught 4 passes for another 50 yards.

The victory was USC's 800th in history after subtracting 14 victories that were vacated due to NCAA penalty (prior to the penalty, Troy hit 800 wins in 2012).

GAME 7 – October 18, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 56, Colorado 28
Att: 74,756

Colorado	0	7	14	7	—	28
USC	28	7	21	0	—	56

QB Cody Kessler threw 7 touchdown passes, including 5 in the first half and 4 in the first quarter, to lead No. 22 USC to a 56-28 Homecoming victory over Colorado in front of 74,756 fans in the Coliseum and a national Pac-12 Networks audience.

Kessler's 7 TDs also tied the Pac-12 record for a regulation game (shared with Arizona State's Mike Pagel versus Stanford in 1981) and USC equaled a team record for TD throws in a game (also versus Colorado in 2012). The win kept USC undefeated in 9 games against the Buffaloes and was the most points in the series (it was the fifth straight game in the series in which the Trojans scored at least 40 points).

Kessler threw touchdowns on all four of USC's first-quarter possessions: 16 and then 18 yards to WR Nelson Agholor, 7 yards to WR JuJu Smith and 15 yards to TE Bryce Dixon (the second and fourth scores followed interceptions by S Su'a Cravens and CB Kevon Seymour, respectively).

Colorado got on the board early in the second quarter on a 1-yard run by RB Michael Adkins II to culminate an 18-play drive, but late in the half Kessler found Dixon for a 9-yard TD as he tied a USC record for most TDs passes in a half (5, shared with Mark Sanchez and Matt Barkley) and put the Trojans up 35-7 at intermission.

On USC's first possession of the second half, Kessler connected with Agholor on a 75-yard scoring bomb. After Colorado scored midway through the third quarter on a 2-yard pass from QB Sefo Liufau to WR Shay Fields, USC took just 56 seconds to respond as Kessler got his record-setting seventh TD toss on a 24-yarder to WR Steven Mitchell. The teams then traded touchdowns late in the quarter, with Liufau hitting WR Nelson Spruce for 5 yards (Spruce's school record-tying 11th in 2014) and then TB Javorius Allen running 39 yards. Colorado added a 9-yard scoring run by QB Jordan Gehrke midway through the final period.

Overall, Kessler completed 19-of-26 passes for 319 yards (all in 3 quarters of play), Allen ran for 128 yards on 15 carries, TB Justin Davis added 97 yards on 11 tries, Agholor had 6 catches for 128 yards with his career-best 3 TDs and Smith had 4 grabs for 104 yards. ILB Anthony Sarao led Troy with a game-best 12 tackles and the Trojans posted 4 sacks.

USC had 532 total yards on just 61 plays (8.7 average), while CU had 403 yards on 95 plays. The Buffaloes held the ball for 35:57 and had 27 first downs to USC's 21.

Liufau was 23-of-35 for 143 yards, Spruce had 9 receptions for 69 yards and TB Tony Jones gained 62 yards on 11 rushes.

GAME 8 – October 25, Salt Lake City, Utah
Utah 24, USC 21
Att: 47,619

USC	7	7	0	7	—	21
Utah	7	3	7	7	—	24

QB Travis Wilson threw a 1-yard touchdown pass to WR Kaelin Clay with 8 seconds to play to give No. 19 Utah a 24-21 win over No. 20 USC on a breezy evening before a sold-out Rice-Eccles Stadium record crowd of 47,619 fans and a national FOX Sports 1 audience.

After USC failed to convert on third-and-2 and then on fourth-and-2 with 2:08 to play, the Utes drove 73 yards in 11 plays, including Wilson's 19-yard scramble to the USC 1, then saw the Trojans stuff RB Devontae Booker for no gain before Wilson threw the game-winner.

The contest began on an unusual note when WR Darres Rogers couldn't haul in QB Cody Kessler's backwards pass on the second play of the game and, while players from both teams stopped because they thought it was an incomplete pass, CB Davion Orphey scooped up the live ball (it was ruled a fumble) and raced 53 yards for a score.

But USC responded on its next drive, as Kessler hit WR JuJu Smith with a 10-yard scoring pass. Utah added a 24-yard field goal by PK Andy Phillips midway through the second quarter, but CB Adoree' Jackson ran back the ensuing kickoff a school record-tying 100 yards to give USC a 14-10 lead.

Utah regained the lead late in the third quarter on Booker's 24-yard TD burst following an intercepted Trojan pass. USC then went up 21-17 early in the final quarter on Kessler's 4-yard TD pass to Rogers.

Kessler completed 75% of his throws (23-of-32) for 264 yards, WR Nelson Agholor had a career-best 10 catches for 110 yards, Smith added 6 grabs for 77 yards and TB Javorius Allen ran 101 yards on 27 carries. OLB Scott Felix had a game-best 9 tackles (1.5 for a loss) and a deflection, ILB Anthony Sarao had 8 stops and OLB Su'a Cravens had 7 tackles with 2 sacks and a deflection. USC's defense got turnovers twice when the Utes got to the Trojan 1, first when OLB J.R. Tavai forced a fumble that S Leon McQuay recovered in the first quarter on Utah's first drive and then on a strip and recovery by Jackson in the third quarter (Jackson ran the ball back 100 yards for a TD but the score was negated because of an inadvertent referee's whistle).

USC had 364 total yards to Utah's 331, but Troy's streak of consecutive games rushing for 200 yards was snapped (it had 100 rushing yards).

For Utah, Wilson was 18-of-32 for 194 yards, Booker had 102 yards on 26 rushes and TE Westlee Tonga caught 6 passes for 71 yards.

USC, which suited up just 48 recruited scholarship players, lost OT Chad Wheeler in the first quarter and Tavai right before halftime to knee injuries.

GAME 9 – November 1, Pullman, Washington
USC 44, Washington State 17
Att: 25,012

USC	14	10	13	7	—	44
Washington St.	0	7	3	7	—	17

QB Cody Kessler threw 5 touchdown passes, including 3 to WR JuJu Smith, WR Nelson Agholor caught an 87-yard TD and set the USC career record for punt returns touchdowns and TB Javorius Allen had his sixth consecutive 100-yard rushing outing as USC dominated Washington State, 44-17, on a cold (mid-40s), wet (constant drizzle and mist) and foggy day in front of 25,012 fans in Pullman and a national Pac-12 Networks audience.

Kessler threw for a personal-best 400 yards on 21-of-32 passing. Agholor caught 8 passes for a career-high 220 yards and his 65-yard TD punt runback early in the first quarter gave him 4 in his career. Smith's 3 scoring receptions tied the USC freshman game mark (he had 6 catches overall for 74 yards). Allen's sixth straight 100-yard game (114 yards on 19 carries) gave him the most consecutive in a season by a Trojan since Marcus Allen's 11 in 1981.

Two plays after Agholor's punt return, LB Hayes Pullard intercepted a Connor Halliday pass, setting up Kessler's 22-yard TD pass to Smith.

Halliday, the nation's passing and total offense leader, broke his ankle on WSU's second possession and was replaced by redshirt freshman walk-on QB Luke Falk.

USC opened a 24-0 lead in the middle of the second quarter on PK Andre Heidari's 37-yard field goal and Smith's 22-yard TD reception of a Kessler pass before the Cougars got on the board late in the half on Falk's 9-yard pass to WR Robert Lewis.

WSU pulled within 24-10 midway into the third quarter on PK Quentin Breshears' 27-yard field goal. But USC scored on its next 3 possessions, first on an 87-yard pass from Kessler to Agholor (career longs for both players), then on a 7-yard Kessler-to-Smith pass and finally, after OLB Scott Felix's fumble recovery, Kessler hit WR Steven Mitchell on a 5-yard score late in the third quarter.

The Cougars ended the day's scoring on Falk's 12-yard TD toss to WR Isiah Myers late in the game.

USC had 527 yards of total offense on 64 plays to WSU's 444 yards on 92 plays, but the Trojans converted just 2-of-11 third downs and held the ball just 23:30.

Pullard led USC with 9 tackles, while CB Adoree' Jackson added 8 stops and 2 deflections.

For WSU, Falk was 38-of-57 for 370 yards, WRs Tyler Baker (89 yards) and Vince Mayle (83 yards) each had 9 catches and RB Theron West had 7 grabs for 91 yards along with 9 carries for 41 yards. The Cougars' 44 completions were a USC opponent record.

GAME 10 – November 13, Los Angeles Coliseum
USC 38, California 30
Att: 64,615

California	2	7	7	14	—	30
USC	21	10	0	7	—	38

USC, behind a career-best 16 receptions by WR Nelson Agholor, built a 31-2 first half lead but had to hang on to defeat California, 38-30, on a Thursday evening in front of a 64,615 fans in the Coliseum and a national ESPN audience.

It kept USC undefeated against Cal since 2003 (and at home since 2000). It also was just the second non-Thanksgiving/non-bowl Thursday game in the Coliseum.

Agholor, who had 8 catches for 120 yards in the first quarter and 13 for 177 by halftime, ended up with 216 yards and 2 TDs. It was the first time in USC history that a receiver has had consecutive 200-yard outings and the first time in a season that a Trojan has had a pair of 200-yard games (it also tied Agholor with Keyshawn Johnson, Dwayne Jarrett, Robert Woods and Marqise Lee for the most 200-yard receiving games in a career with 2). His 16 catches were 1 shy of Woods' game record and tied for fourth most ever in the Pac-12.

USC, coming off a bye, jumped out to its 31-2 lead on a 10-yard TD pass from QB Cody Kessler to Agholor on the game's opening drive, followed by a 32-yard Kessler strike to a diving WR George Farmer on its next series before Cal got on the board when DT Mustafa Jalil tackled TB Justin Davis in the end zone. Davis redeemed himself on the next possession with a 3-yard TD run late in the first quarter, then after CB Kevon Seymour recovered a fumble forced by S Leon McQuay, Kessler and Agholor connected on a 9-yard scoring toss midway into the second quarter. After PK Andre Heidari hit a 25-yard field goal late in the half to give Troy its 29-point lead, Cal quickly drove 75 yards to get a TD with 9 seconds to play in the half as QB Jared Goff hit WR Chris Harper with a 6-yard pass.

The Golden Bears pulled within 31-16 late in the third quarter on a 5-yard TD run by RB Daniel Lasco. But USC responded on its ensuing series, going 78 yards in 16 plays, capped by Kessler's 15-yard pass to TE Randall Telfer. Goff threw TD passes on Cal's next 2 possessions, first 5 yards to WR Bryce Treggs and then 29 yards to WR Stephen Anderson with 1:36 to go before the Trojans recovered Cal's onside kick to seal the win.

Kessler hit 73.8% of his aeriels (31-of-42, a career-tying best for completions) for 371 yards and the 4 TDs. TD Javorius Allen had 60 yards on 21 carries, ending his streak of 6 consecutive 100-yard rushing games, while Davis added 45 yards on 11 tries.

S-OLB Su'a Cravens led USC with 10 tackles (1.5 for losses), while S Gerald Bowman had 9 stops. USC sacked Goff 4 times, including 1.5 by DE Leonard Williams.

For Cal, Goff was 29-of-46 for 279 yards, Lasco ran for 86 yards on 19 tries, Harper had 9 catches for 60 yards and WR Kenny Lawler had 8 grabs for 86 yards.

USC had 450 yards of total offense to the Golden Bears' 384 as the Trojans held Cal, which was ranked in the national Top 11 in passing, scoring and total offense, under its averages by 82 yards, 10.9 points and 125.9 yards, respectively. The teams combined for 25 penalties, including 14 by the Trojans for 159 yards.

GAME 11 – November 22, Pasadena, California

UCLA 38, USC 20

Att: 82,431

USC	7	7	0	0	—	20
UCLA	14	10	14	0	—	38

No. 11 UCLA, behind QB Brett Hundley’s 326 passing yards with 3 TDs and a relentless defense that posted 6 sacks, defeated No. 24 USC, 38-20, before 82,431 fans in the Rose Bowl and a national ABC-TV audience.

The loss, Troy’s third consecutive to UCLA, ended USC’s hopes of capturing the Pac-12 South Division and advancing to the Pac-12 Championship Game, while the Bruins’ dreams to do so remained alive.

USC got off to a quick start when ILB Anthony Sarao intercepted Hundley on the Bruins’ second offensive play of the game and returned it 17 yards for a touchdown. But after the Trojans fumbled away a punt deep in their territory on UCLA’s next possession, the Bruins countered quickly with a 10-yard Hundley TD toss to WR Devin Lucien. After USC’s next drive went 3-and-out, Hundley hit WR Thomas Duarte on a 57-yard scoring bomb on UCLA’s next play midway through the opening quarter.

The Trojans, who failed on a fourth-and-2 run from UCLA’s 5-yard line on the final play of the first quarter, tied the game at 14-14 on their next series as QB Cody Kessler hit TB Justin Davis for a 2-yard TD. The Bruins answered on their next drive with a 32-yard field goal by PK Ka’imi Fairbairn and then they drove 68 yards at the end of the half following an interception, with Hundley connecting with WR Eldridge Massington for a 13-yard touchdown to go up by 10 points.

UCLA then scored on runs on its first 2 possessions of the second half, first a 10-yarder by TB Paul Perkins and then a 15-yarder by Hundley. USC managed to score late in the game on a 3-yard run by TB Javorius Allen.

UCLA had 461 yards of total offense to USC’s 276 (the Trojans had just 62 on the ground). The Bruins had 24 first downs to USC’s 16 and converted 9-of-16 third downs.

Kessler was 22-of-34 for 214 yards and Allen led Troy in rushing (60 yards on 14 tries) and receiving (7 catches for 42 yards). ILB Hayes Pullard had a team-best 9 tackles. CB-S Josh Shaw, who had been suspended for USC’s first 10 games, saw action on special teams and as a backup in the secondary.

For UCLA, Hundley was 22-of-31 for 326 yards en route to becoming UCLA’s career total offense leader, Perkins ran for 93 yards on 24 carries and Fuller (63 yards) and WR Mossi Johnson (60 yards) each had 5 receptions.

GAME 12 – November 29, Los Angeles Coliseum

USC 49, Notre Dame 14

Att: 79,586

Notre Dame	0	7	7	0	—	14
USC	21	14	14	0	—	49

QB Cody Kessler threw a Notre Dame opponent record 6 touchdown passes as USC overwhelmed the Irish, 49-14, before 79,586 fans in the Coliseum and a national FOX audience.

Troy’s 49 points and 35-point victory margin were its second most ever in the series.

Kessler hit 80% of his passes, completing a career-best 32 on 40 attempts (including 16 consecutive at one point) for 372 yards and no interceptions. His 5 scoring TDs in the first half tied a USC record and were the most ever thrown in a half against Notre Dame.

After punting on its first possession, the Trojans scored on their next 5 drives to open up a 35-0 second quarter lead. It was USC’s most points in any half against ND since 1979 and the most any team has registered in the first half against the Irish since 1998. Kessler threw first quarter TD passes to WR George Farmer (48 yards), CB-WR Adoree’ Jackson (16 yards) and Farmer again (31 yards late in the quarter), then in the second quarter to WR Darreus Rogers (6 yards following an interception by S Gerald Bowman) and WR Nelson Agholor (14 yards following a fumble recovery by LB Hayes Pullard that was forced by OLB J.R. Tavai).

Notre Dame then replaced starting QB Everett Golson, who came into the game ranked in the national Top 10 in passing TDs, total offense and passing yardage but completed just 7-of-18 throws for 75 yards and was sacked 3 times, with QB Malik Zaire, who got ND on the board late in the half with his 11-yard TD run.

But the Trojans scored on their first 2 possessions of the second half, on a 9-yard Kessler pass to TE Randall Telfer and then a 16-yard run by TB Justin Davis before the Irish countered with a 1-yard run by RB Greg Bryant to finish the game’s scoring.

USC piled up 577 total yards on 93 plays, had a Notre Dame opponent record 35 first downs, converted 13-of-18 third downs and held the ball 37:39. ND had 349 total yards on 64 plays, 20 first downs and converted 6-of-14 third downs.

Agholor caught 12 passes for 120 yards, WR JuJu Smith had 5 grabs for 48 yards and Farmer had 4 for 85 yards. TB Javorius Allen ran for a game-best 93 yards on 19 carries, while Davis added 81 yards on 19 tries. Bowman and S John Plattenburg each had 7 tackles, S-OLB Su’a Cravens added 6 stops and Tavai had 3.5 sacks among his 5 tackles. Jackson, who started at both wide receiver and cornerback, became the first Trojan to start a game on offense and defense since at least the late 1960s when records of starters were kept (2 platoon football began in 1965). PK Andre Heidari, who hit all 7 of his PATs, set the Pac-12 career records for PATs made and attempted.

For Notre Dame, which suffered its fourth straight loss and fifth in 6 games after opening the season at 6-0, Bryant ran for 79 yards on 7 attempts, Zaire was 9-of-20 for 170 yards and WR Will Fuller had 5 receptions for 75 yards.

It was USC’s 1,200th game and made Steve Sarkisian only the third USC head coach to win his debut against Notre Dame. It was only the 12th time in the series that both teams were unranked and the first time since 1986 that both were coming off a loss. USC had on-field celebrations for the 50th and 100th anniversaries of its famous comeback victories over Notre Dame in 1964 and 1974, as well as for the upcoming movie “Unbroken” about former USC Olympic distance runner and war hero Louis Zamperini.

GAME 13 – December 27, San Diego, California
Holiday Bowl
USC 45, Nebraska 42
Att: 55,789

Nebraska	17	0	17	8	—	42
USC	10	14	21	0	—	45

No. 24 USC—behind QB Cody Kessler's 3 touchdown passes, a pair of scores by both TB Javorius Allen and CB-WR-RET Adoree' Jackson, a pair of fourth quarter fourth-down defensive stops and a batted-down Hail Mary pass at the gun—held off No. 25 Nebraska, 45-42, in a wild shootout on a chilly evening in Troy's first appearance in the Holiday Bowl before a crowd of 55,789 fans in San Diego's Qualcomm Stadium and a national ESPN audience.

It was USC's 33rd bowl victory (not including a win vacated by NCAA penalty), including its eighth in the past 9 bowls. The win kept USC undefeated against Nebraska in 5 meetings (it was the first time the teams met in the post-season). It was USC's 13th straight win over a Big Ten team, including 8 in a row in a bowl.

The teams combined for 1,040 total yards and 87 points, with 4 touchdowns measuring more than 40 yards. There were 27 points scored in the first quarter and 38 in the third.

After USC built a 45-27 lead late in the third quarter on Kessler's 20-yard TD pass to TE Bryce Nelson, Nebraska countered with a 65-yard scoring pass from QB Tommy Armstrong Jr. to WR Jordan Westerkamp. Nebraska was stopped on fourth down on the USC 34 on its next possession, but Armstrong raced 15 yards for a score (and then hit WR Kenny Bell on the conversion) on the Cornhuskers' next drive with 6:52 to play to pull within 3 points. USC then went 3-and-out for its third straight possession and Nebraska drove to the Trojan 31, only to be stopped short again on fourth down with 2:31 remaining. Nebraska got the ball back with 17 seconds to play and drove to its 44, but Armstrong's Hail Mary pass with 1 second to go was knocked away by WR Nelson Agholor, who was inserted to defend the play.

After Nebraska opened the game's scoring on PK Drew Brown's 34-yard field goal when it took over at midfield following a partially blocked punt, Jackson ran back the ensuing kickoff a Holiday Bowl-record 98 yards for a TD. Nebraska answered with a 18-yard Armstrong-to-Bell TD pass, then USC countered with a 42-yard field goal by PK Andre Heidari to tie the game at 10-10 midway through the opening quarter. Armstrong hit WR De'Mornay Pierson-El with a 9-yard scoring pass late in the quarter, but USC responded again as Kessler found Agholor for a 17-yard TD early in the second quarter. The Trojans then took a 24-17 lead into halftime on Allen's 2-yard scoring run to cap an 80-yard drive. Nebraska benefitted from outstanding field position in the opening half, as the average start of its 9 first-half possession was its 45-yard line.

USC extended its margin to 31-17 early in the second half when Kessler threw a short pass to Jackson, who raced 71 yards for a TD. The teams then traded TDs, with RB Ameer Abdullah getting a 20-yard TD run and Allen scoring on a 44-yard run. After Nebraska blocked another USC punt late in the third quarter and took over at the USC 16, Brown nailed a 24-yard field goal to pull the Cornhuskers within 38-27.

USC won despite Nebraska having more total yards (525 to 515), passing yards (381 to 321), first downs (28 to 22), plays (94 to 73) and possession time (34:26 to 25:34). The Trojans were penalized 12 times for 97 yards and converted just 3-of-14 third downs (0-of-6 in the second half).

Kessler, the game's Offensive MVP, completed 23-of-39 throws for 321 yards and 3 TDs with an interception, and he tied the USC season records for TD passes (39) and 300-yard passing games (7) and set season marks for completions (315), completion percentage (69.7), passing efficiency (167.1) and interception rate (1.11). Allen ran for a game-best 152 yards on 26 carries and had a 16-yard reception, giving him at least 100 all-purpose yards in every game of 2014. Jackson, who became the first Trojan since R. Jay Soward in 1996 with 2 scoring kick runbacks in a season, had 203 all-purpose yards (3 receptions for 73 yards and 3 kick returns for 130 yards) along with 7 tackles. Agholor caught 7 passes for 90 yards, giving him 104 catches in 2014 (third best in USC history). DE Leonard Williams, the game's Defensive MVP, and CB Josh Shaw each had a team-high 9 tackles (Williams had a sack), while LB Hayes Pullard added 8 stops to become the first Trojan since Dennis Johnson in 1977-79 to lead USC in tackles for 3 seasons.

For Nebraska, Armstrong hit 32-of-51 passes for 381 yards with 3 TDs and an interception and he ran for 41 yards on 12 tries, Abdullah had 269 all-purpose yards (88 on 27 carries, 61 on 6 receptions and 120 on 3 kickoff returns), Pierson-El had 8 catches for 102 yards and Bell had 7 grabs for 71 yards.

The Cornhuskers were led by interim head coach Barney Cotton, filling in after head coach Bo Pellini was released after the regular season.

It was just USC's seventh game in San Diego and the first since 1992.
